 Cui Garcia,2021-04-06 An Immigrant Goes Back Home to Cebu is the author's memoir about living within and between the Philippine and Canadian worlds While this is one professional immigrant's narrative about persistence and fulfillment in Canada her host country it is also every immigrant's story about resourcefully dealing with everyday interchanges and challenges in the new country while tapping the old not only for fond moving remembrances but also for learned coping mechanisms to resolve commonplace and sometimes convoluted issues such as racism It is also about our pasts and continuing quests to discover who we are and what contributes to forming the persons that we continue to become It attempts to answer two existential questions immigrants in the latter part of their journey often grapple with Is it worth it to continue staying in the now familiar host country where one has worked hard at having a happy and fulfilled life Or is it beneficial and practicable to respond to that call of one's first home which is still compelling despite the new challenges of a changed system and a new set of characters From the author's journeys with both stayers in the host country and returnees to the native home she shares with us inspiring stories about creating and extending a meaningful life guided by a sense of others kindness and a duty to speak out and act on one's principles These unsung heroes didn't just stand where they were planted they were useful The Uncommon Cure T. Agvastian,2015-09-30 The past haunts you and the future terrifies you

What do you do seek redemption sink into madness or eat These stories follow the lives of women trying to find emotional peace through food fantasy or virtue The urge for liberation from pain drives them to face conflicts arising from the desire for relief Eva has been carrying a terrible secret from the Second World War in Ukraine As she approaches the end of her life she wishes to eat herself into a diabetic coma to escape the guilt Unfortunately her daughter in law feels it is her Hippocratic duty to save Eva from gastronomic excess While each comes at the other from complex very different life experiences peaceful intentions inevitably end in war Long ago Sarah gave up living on the outside Now in an attempt to insulate herself from painful events she tries to dream an alternative reality into existence After Magnolia commits the ultimate sin and realizes there will be no happy ending she must somehow find clarity and peace As a narrator of a sleepy American suburb comically recounts a squirrels demise she soon discovers that the joke may be on her The Uncommon Cure shares a novella and three short stories that intertwine the struggles of several female characters as they attempt to cure their ills with unorthodox solutions
