APAIS 1991: Australian public affairs information service , Young and Free Joanne Faulkner, 2016-05-03 Tracing the complex yet intimate relationship between a present day national obsession with childhood and a colonial past with which Australia as a nation has not adequately come to terms Young and Free draws on philosophy literature film and testimony The result is a demonstration of how anxiety about childhood has become a screen for more fundamental and intractable issues that vex Australian social and political life Joanne Faulkner argues that by interpreting these anxieties in their relation to settler colonial Australia's unresolved conflict with Aboriginal people new ways of conceiving of Australian community may be opened The book engages with philosophical and literary characterizations of childhood from Locke and Rousseau to Freud Bergson Benjamin Agamben Lacan Rancière and Halbwachs The author's psychoanalytic approach is supplemented by an engagement with contemporary political philosophy that informs Faulkner's critique of the concepts of the subject sovereignty and knowledge resulting in a speculative postcolonial model of the subject Cover artist credit

, Sightlines Helen Gilbert, 2025-10-01 Sightlines Race Gender and Nation in Contemporary Australian Theatre asserts the centrality of theater to the ongoing negotiations of the Australian context By exploring ways in which ideas about race gender and nation are expressed in concrete theatrical contexts the performative qualities of theatrical representation are revealed as compelling important sites of critique Helen Gilbert discusses an exciting variety of plays drawing examples from marginalized groups as well as from the theatrical mainstream While fully engaged with the discourses of contemporary critical thought Sightlines remains focused on the material stuff of the theater grounding its discussion in the visual elements of costume movement and scenography And although focused specifically on performance the author's insistent interest in historical and political contexts also speaks to the broader concerns of cultural studies The book's recurrent concern with representations of Aboriginality particularly in the works of nonindigenous playwrights draws attention to racial politics as a perennial motif in postcolonial nations Its illumination of the relationships between patriarchy and imperialism is supported by an extensive discussion of plays by and about women This nomadic approach marks Sightlines as a groundbreaking study of recent Australian theater a provocative application of postcolonial theory to the embodied qualities of theatrical representation An impressive and ground breaking study that provides a coherent postcolonial approach to Australian drama Bill Ashcroft University of New South Wales Elegantly written and always beautifully lucid in its argument this is a very original work particularly in its marriage of performance theory and postcolonial analysis Deidre Coleman University of Sydney Helen Gilbert is Lecturer in Drama and Theatre Studies University of Queensland and co author with Joanne Tompkins of Post Colonial Drama Theory Practice Politics Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2003-04 Northwest
