Shades Of Obsession English Edition:

Shadow Boxing with the Gods Vijay N. Shankar, 2014-08-20 The Old order changeth Yielding Place to new Lest one good custom Should corrupt the world Alfred Lord Tennyson SHADOW BOXING WITH THE GODS is a tour through many traditions and beliefs in the history of Man to arrive at the truths we recognize today It is a book of aggressive but persistently rational thought which deconstructs the beliefs and theologies that have accompanied mankind from the earliest times and often controlled human destinies While many of these beliefs help people to find meaning to the great mystery of life they nevertheless crave to be understood in the context of our modern environment Based on the core truth that the greatest ideas if carried to extremes can become ridiculous and hurt people the book traces the diverse strands of human belief in various civilizations starting with fantasy and myth making Ideas about life divinity nature and community have enriched existence but have also caused mayhem and tyranny through blind beliefs that fed fundamentalism and terror The Nazi holocaust the burning of witches and heretics at the stake the indignity of widowhood and caste practices in India were all the result of beliefs that overpowered the minds of large sections of people Today more than ever before we are equipped with science reason and information to embrace the spiritual and the humane while freeing ourselves from the clutches of superstition and ignorance thus achieving a far deeper understanding about our individual and collective existence A Past Without Shadow Zohar Shavit, 2005-02-22 A Past Without Shadow examines 50 years of German children s books in which the darkest horrors of the Third Reich have routinely remained hidden The horrors of the Third Reich are systematically screened and filtered allowing the darker bleaker parts of history to escape illumination Here Zohar Shavit explores 345 German books for children describing the Third Reich and the Holocaust and finds a shocking distortion of the past a recurrent narrative which suggests that the Germans themselves had no hand in the suffering inflicted on the Jews These books Shavit argues have created the false historical lesson that the real victims of Hitler s crimes were the German people themselves First published to great acclaim in Hebrew and now available in English this book is a wake up call for anyone concerned about German children s literature and its responsibility to past and future In the Shadow of the Magic Mountain Andrea Weiss, 2024-05-31 A biography of Thomas Mann s two eldest children that provides intriguing insight into both their lives and the political and cultural shifts at the same time Thomas Mann s two eldest children Erika and Klaus were unconventional rebellious and fiercely devoted to each other Empowered by their close bond they espoused vehemently anti Nazi views in a Europe swept up in fascism and were openly even defiantly gay in an age of secrecy and repression Although their father s fame has unfairly overshadowed their legacy Erika and Klaus were serious authors performance artists before the medium existed and political visionaries whose searing essays and lectures are still relevant today And as Andrea Weiss reveals in this dual biography their story offers a fascinating view of the literary and intellectual life political turmoil and shifting sexual mores of their times In the Shadow of the Magic Mountain begins with an account of the make believe world the Manns created together as children an early sign of their talents as well as the intensity of their relationship Weiss documents the lifelong artistic collaboration that followed showing how as the Nazis took power Erika and Klaus infused their work with a shared sense of political commitment Their views earned them exile and after escaping Germany they eventually moved to the United States where both served as members of the U S armed forces Abroad they enjoyed a wide circle of famous friends including Andre Gide Christopher Isherwood Jean Cocteau and W H Auden whom Erika married in 1935 But the demands of life in exile Klaus s heroin addiction and Erika s new allegiance to their father strained their mutual devotion and in 1949 Klaus committed suicide Beautiful never before seen photographs illustrate Weiss s riveting tale of two brave nonconformists whose dramatic lives open up new perspectives on the history of the twentieth century

Edward Dmytryk Fintan McDonagh,2021-07-21 Edward Dmytryk was one of the so called Hollywood Ten jailed for contempt of Congress for refusing to testify before the House Un American Activities Committee in 1947 Finding himself blacklisted after his prison sentence and unable to operate under a pseudonym he took the step of testifying and naming names to the Committee His career resumed to considerable commercial success but also to prolonged and bitter criticism from the left and persistent mistrust from the right Acknowledged as one of the key figures in the development of the film noir genre having directed one of its first films Murder My Sweet Dmytryk has otherwise frequently been sidelined in critical studies because of the controversy This book is the first to critically evaluate each of the dozens of films he made between the 1930s and the 1970s including The Young Lions Crossfire and The Caine Mutiny among many others The Shadow of Death Moshe Pelli, 2008 The Shadow of Death Letters in Flames is an analytical study of eight major Jewish and Israeli writers who wrote about the experience of the Shoah Holocaust The book is divided into two main sections The first section The Holocaust Experience from Within analyzes literary works by the writers Aharon Appelfeld Elie Wiesel Primo Levi Ka tzetnik and Jerzy Kosinski who experienced the Holocaust firsthand The second section is devoted to After the Holocaust Experience from Without concentrating mainly on the literary analysis of works by writers who responded to the Holocaust after the event They are the Israeli writers Hanoch Bartov Hayim Gouri and Yehuda Amichai The book is literary oriented with a prominent focus on textual and literary analysis of major examples of Holocaust literature It purports to examine the texts under study and analyze them by pointing out literary devices that indicate the writers perception of the Holocaust and their attempt to convey the meaning and significance of the Holocaust to the modern reader Narratives of the Vietnam War by Korean and American Writers Jinim Park, 2007 Original Scholarly Monograph Shadow Sites Kitty Hauser, 2007-03-29 At certain times of the day at sunrise and sunset the outlines of prehistoric fields barrows and hill forts in the British landscape may be thrown into relief Such shadow sites best seen from above and captured by an airborne camera are both examples of and metaphors for a particular way of seeing the landscape At a time of rapid modernisation and urbanisation in mid twentieth century Britain an archaeological vision of the British landscape reassured and enchanted a number of writers artists photographers and film makers From John Piper Eric Ravilious and Shell guide books to photographs of bomb damage aerial archaeology and The Wizard of Oz Kitty Hauser delves into evocative interpretations of the landscape and looks at the affinities between photography as a medium to capture traces of the past as well as their absence Standing in the Shadow of the Master? Chaucerian Influences and Interpretations Kathleen A. Bishop with a Foreword by David Matthews, 2020-05-22 Standing in the Shadow of the Master Chaucerian Influences and Interpretations grew out of a session at the 2008 International Medieval Congress at the University of Leeds In this volume Editor Kathleen A Bishop brings together a collection of essays contributed by a talented and diverse group of scholars from the United States Canada and Europe The articles question the traditional supremacy of Chaucer in the canon while also reaffirming the lasting impact of this great English writer of the Middle Ages Topics covered include Shakespeare Lydgate Gower Henryson Douglas Clanvowe Bokenham and the Gawain Poet as well as a modern psychoanalytic assessment of the Wife of Bath and a dialogue on making Chaucer relevant to undergraduates immersed in 21st century culture Joseph II: Volume 1, In the Shadow of Maria Theresa, 1741-1780 Derek Beales, 1987-04-30 This volume describes the claustrophobic atmosphere in which Joseph was trained to rule and his attempts after 1765 as co regent with his formidable mother

Accent on Privilege Katharine W. Jones, 2001 Accent on Privilege looks at the complexities of immigration asking how native and immigrant construct race gender class and national identity Katharine Jones investigates how white English immigrants live in the United States and how they use their status as privileged foreigners to gain the upper hand with Americans Their privilege she finds is created by both American Anglophilia and the ways they perform their identities as proper English women and men in their host country Jones looks at the cultural aspects of this performance how English people play up their accents stiff upper lip sense of humor and fashion even the way they drink beer The political and cultural ties between England and the US act as a backdrop for the identity negotiations of these English people many of whom do not even consider themselves to be immigrants This unique exploration of the workings of white privilege offers an important new understanding of the paradoxes of how class gender and race are formed in the US and by implication in the UK Author note Katharine W Jones is Assistant Professor of Sociology at Philadelphia University

In the Shadow of Leviathan Jeffrey R. Collins, 2020-02-20 Revolutionises our understanding of Hobbes s influence over Locke and their roles within the history of religious freedom and liberalism

In Marx's Shadow Costica Bradatan, Serguei Oushakine, 2010-03-19 Despite its key role in the intellectual shaping of state socialism Communist ideas are often dismissed as mere propaganda or as a rhetorical exercise aimed at advancing socialist intellectuals on their way to power By drawing attention to unknown and unexplored areas trends and ways of thinking under socialism the volume examines Eastern Europe and Russian histories of intellectual movements inspired negatively as well as positively by Communist arguments and dogmas Through an interdisciplinary dialogue the collection demonstrates how various bodies of theoretical knowledge philosophical social political aesthetic even theological were used not only to justify dominant political views but also to frame oppositional and nonofficial discourses and practices The examination of the underlying structures of Communism as an intellectual project provides convincing evidence for questioning a dominant approach that routinely frames the post Communist intellectual development as a revival or at least as a return of the repressed intellectual traditions As the book shows the logic of a radical break suggested by this approach is in contradiction with historical evidence a significant number of philosophical theoretical and ideological debates in post Communist world are in fact the logical continuation of intellectual conversations and confrontations initiated long before 1989

Translating Kali's Feast Stephanos Stephanides, 2021-12-28 Translating Kali's Feast is an interdisciplinary study of the Goddess Kali bringing together ethnography and literature within the theoretical framework of translation studies The idea for the book grew out of the experience and fieldwork of the authors who lived with Indo Caribbean devotees of the Hindu Goddess in Guyana Using a variety of discursive forms including oral history and testimony field notes songs stories poems literary essays photographic illustrations and personal and theoretical reflections it explores the cultural aesthetic and spiritual aspects of the Goddess in a diasporic and cross cultural context With reference to critical and cultural theorists including Walter Benjamin and Julia Kristeva the possibilities offered by Kali and other manifestations of the Goddess as the site of translation are discussed in the works of such writers as Wilson Harris V S Naipaul and R K Narayan The book articulates perspectives on the experience of living through displacement and change while probing the processes of translation involved in literature and ethnography and postulating links between rite and write Hindu leela and creole play The author wrote the description of the Big Puja namely chapter 9 10 11 and 13 and the Guyana Kali Puja Lexicon chapter 17 in collaboration with Guyanese scholar Karna Singh The Illustrated Guide to Film Directors David Quinlan,1983-01-01 To find more information about Rowman and Littlefield titles please visit www.rowmanlittlefield.com

Back to a Shadow in the Night Jonathan Cott,2002 In this collection John Lennon gives insights on surviving fame the day before his murder Bob Dylan contemplates identity in his film Renaldo and Clara and Lou Reed explores the nihilism of New York City and the best lines he s ever written Theorizing Shadow Education and Academic Success in East Asia Young Chun Kim,Jung-Hoon Jung,2021-07-12 This volume tackles perceived myths surrounding the academic excellence of East Asian students and moves beyond Western understanding to offer in depth analysis of the crucial role that shadow education plays in students academic success Featuring a broad range of contributions from countries including Japan China Taiwan and Singapore chapters draw on rich qualitative research to place in the foreground the lived experiences of students teachers and parents in East Asian countries In doing so the text provides indigenous insights into the uses values and meanings of shadow education and highlights unknown cultural and regional aspects as well as related phenomena including trans boundary learning culture nomadic learning individualized learning and the post schooling era Ultimately challenging the previously dominating Western perspective on shadow education the volume offers innovative theorization to highlight shadow education as a phenomenon which cannot be overlooked in broader discussion of East Asian educational performance systems and policy Offering pioneering insights into the growing phenomenon of shadow education this text will benefit researchers academics and educators with an interest in international and comparative education curriculum studies and East Asian educational practices and policy Those interested in the sociology of education and educational policy will also benefit from this book Living in the Shadow of the Cross Paul Kivel,2013-10-01 How our dominant Christian worldview shapes everything from personal behavior to public policy and what to do about it Over the centuries Christianity has accomplished much which is deserving of praise Its institutions have fed the hungry sheltered the homeless and advocated for the poor Christian faith has sustained people through crisis and inspired many to work for social justice Yet although the word Christian connotes the epitome of goodness the actual story is much more complex Over the last two millennia ruling elites have used Christian institutions and values to control those less privileged throughout the world The doctrine of Christianity has been interpreted to justify the killing of millions and its leaders have used their faith to sanction participation in colonialism slavery and genocide In the Western world Christian influence has inspired legislators to continue to limit women's reproductive rights and has kept lesbians and gays on the margins of society. As our triple crises of war, financial meltdown, and environmental destruction intensify, it is imperative that we dig beneath the surface of Christianity's benign reputation to examine its contribution to our social problems. Living in the Shadow of the Cross reveals the ongoing everyday impact of Christian power and privilege on our beliefs, behaviors, and public policy and emphasizes the potential for people to come together to resist domination and build and sustain communities of justice and peace. Paul Kivel is the award-winning author of Uprooting Racism and the director of the Christian Hegemony Project. He is a social justice activist and educator who has focused on the issues of violence prevention, oppression, and social justice for over forty-five years.

Creole Jews Wieke Vink, 2010-01-01 This study presents a refined analysis of Suriname's Jewish identifications. The story of the Surinamese Jews is one of a colonial Jewish community that became ever more interwoven with the local environment of Suriname. Ever since their first settlement, Jewish migrants from diverse backgrounds, each with their own narrative of migration and settlement, were faced with challenges brought about by this new environment: a colonial order and, in essence, a race-based slave society. A place furthermore that was constantly changing economically, socially, demographically, politically, and culturally. Against this background, the Jewish community transformed from a migrant community into a settlers' community. Both the Portuguese and High German Jews adopted Paramaribo as their principal place of residence from the late eighteenth century onwards. Radical economic changes, most notably the decline of the Portuguese Jewish planters' class, not only influenced the economic wealth of the Surinamese Jews as a group but also had considerable impact on their social status in Suriname's society. The story of the Surinamese Jews is a prime example of the many ways in which a colonial environment and diasporic connections put their stamp on everyday life and affected the demarcation of community boundaries and group identifications. The Surinamese Jewish community debated, contested, and negotiated the pillars of a Surinamese Jewish group identity not only among themselves but also with the colonial authorities. This book is based on the author's dissertation.

Exiled Shadow Norman Manea, 2023-01-01 A virtuoso collage novel about narrative identity and exile from international literary sensation Norman Manea. One of the most eloquent living witnesses of the European 20th century, Norman Manea at 87 has brought out Exiled Shadow, a contemplative work of fiction in a strong, clarion translation into English by Carla Baricz. A fitting summarization of a rich and deeply honorable career. Sam Sacks, Wall Street Journal. Exiled Shadow belongs among the great, intricate, and uncompromising works of contemporary literature. Jan Knoffke, Neue Zürcher Zeitung, Switzerland. In this vibrant mosaic of voices, sources, and stories, the protagonist, known only as the Nomadic Misanthrope, leaves communist Romania and is reunited with his friend Gunther, an unrepentant Marxist exiled in Berlin. Their meeting sparks a spirited dialogue that endures throughout the Nomadic Misanthrope's subsequent decades in the United States. At the center of the plot is the figure of the shadow, the insubstantial shape of the exile, the wandering Jew, the death camp survivor, the individual under totalitarianism, the dark side of the Jungian personality.

a figure that calls into question the boundaries of the human condition Recalling the beloved nineteenth century German tale of Peter Schlemihl the man who sold his shadow for a bag of gold this is Norman Manea s most daring work yet an intimate record of alienation and endurance
