The Culex of Virgil, with a Translation Into English Verse by L. M. Sargent, Etc. Lat. & Eng Virgil, 1807 Shades of Authority Stephen James, 2007-10-01 What is the relationship between poetry and power? Should poetry be considered a mode of authority or an impotent medium? And why is it that the modern poets most commonly regarded as authoritative are precisely those whose works wrestle with a sense of artistic inadequacy? Such questions lie at the heart of this study, prompting fresh insights into three of the most important poets of recent decades: Robert Lowell, Geoffrey Hill, and Seamus Heaney. Through attentive close reading and the tracing of dominant motifs in each writer's works, James shows how their responsiveness to matters of political and cultural import lends weight to the idea of poetry as authoritative utterance, as a medium for speaking of and to the world in a persuasive, memorable manner. And yet, as James demonstrates, each poet is exercised by an awareness of his own cultural marginality, even by a sense of the limitations and liabilities of language itself.

Shade and the Pure-Blood Faeries (Shade Series Book 4) Marilyn Peake, 2020-01-02 All that glitters isn't gold. All that shimmers isn't innocent. In her sophomore year at Ocean View College, an institution for training those with magical abilities, Shade is assigned to the Ghost Whisperers' House. Likewise, her friends are assigned to houses dedicated to their unique types of magical ability. No longer freshmen, they get to see more of the inner workings of Ocean View: the good, the bad, and the ugly. Shade faces several major challenges this year. She supports her selkie friend Apple as she undergoes a difficult surgery. She helps solve the mystery of local children who have gone missing, some returning to their parents in a disturbing condition. Learning that the pure-blood faeries wield way too much power in a system that holds others back, Shade also begins fighting to change the status quo. This becomes a pivotal year in Shade's life as she grows into her destiny as a ghost whisperer. SHADE AND THE PURE BLOOD FAERIES is Book 4 in a YA Paranormal Mystery/Urban Fantasy series. The Churchman, 1898 Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office, 1991

California studies in classical antiquity William S. Anderson, 1981 Brodsky Translating Brodsky: Poetry in Self-Translation Alexandra Berlina, 2014-04-24 Is poetry lost in translation, or is it perhaps the other way around? Is it found, gained, won? What happens when a poet decides to give his favorite Russian poems a new life in English? Are the new texts shadows, twins, or doppelgangers of their originals, or are they something completely different? Does the poet resurrect himself from the death of the author by reinterpreting his own work in another language, or does he turn into a monster, a bilingual, bicultural centaur? Alexandra Berlina herself, a poetry translator and a 2012 Barnstone Translation Prize laureate, addresses these questions in this new study of Joseph Brodsky whose Nobel prize winning work has never yet been discussed from this perspective A Dictionary of the English Language Joseph Emerson Worcester, 1859 Chambers's Cyclopædia of English Literature Robert Chambers, 1910 "A" Standard Dictionary of the English Language Upon Original Plans Isaac Kaufman Funk, 1893 Chamber's Cyclopaedia of English Literature Robert Chambers, 1902 Chambers's Cyclopaedia of English Literature Robert Chambers, 1902 The North British Review , 1866 Theatre Translation in Performance Silvia Bigliuzzi, Paola Ambrosi, Peter Kofler, 2013-04-02 This volume focuses on the highly debated topic of theatrical translation one brought on by a renewed interest in the idea of performance and translation as a cooperative effort on the part of the translator the director and the actors Exploring the role and function of the translator as co subject of the performance it addresses current issues concerning the role of the translator for the stage as opposed to the one for the editorial market within a multifarious cultural context The current debate has shown a growing tendency to downplay and challenge the notion of translational accuracy in favor of a recreational and post dramatic attitude underlying the role of the director and playwright instead This book discusses the delicate balance between translating and directing from an intercultural semiotic aesthetic and interlingual perspective taking a critical stance on approaches that belittle translation for the theatre or equate it to an editorial practice focused on literality Chapters emphasize the idea of dramatic translation as a particular and extremely challenging type of performance while consistently exploring its various textual intertextual intertranslational contextual cultural and intercultural facets The notion of performance is applied to textual interpretation as performance interlingual versus intersemiotic performance and inter cultural performance in the adaptation of translated texts for the stage providing a wide ranging discussion from an international group of contributors directors and translators
