Orleans Stephen Verderber, 2009-02-15 Winner Abbott Lowell Cummings Prize Vernacular Architecture Forum 2010 From iconic neighborhoods such as the French Quarter and the Garden District to more economically modest but no less culturally vibrant areas architecture is a key element that makes New Orleans an extraordinary American city Delirious New Orleans began as a documentary project to capture the idiosyncratic vernacular architecture and artifacts vintage mom and pop businesses roadside motels live music clubs neon signs wall murals fast food joints and so on that helped give the city's various neighborhoods their unique character But because so many of these places and artifacts were devastated by Hurricane Katrina Delirious New Orleans has become both a historical record of what existed in the past and a blueprint for what must be rebuilt and restored to retain the city's unique multicultural landscape Stephen Verderber starts with the premise that New Orleans's often overlooked neighborhoods imbue the city with deep authenticity as a place He opens Delirious New Orleans with a photo essay that vividly presents this vernacular architecture and its artifacts both before Katrina and in its immediate aftermath In the following sections of the book which are also heavily illustrated Verderber takes us on a tour of the city's commercial vernacular architecture as well as the expressive folk architecture of its African American neighborhoods He discusses how the built environment was profoundly shaped by New Orleans's history of race and class inequities and political maneuvering along with its peculiar below sea level geography Verderber also considers the aftermath of Katrina and the armada of faceless FEMA trailers that have at least temporarily and by default transformed this urban landscape

Whispers on the Color Line Gary Alan Fine, Patricia A. Turner, 2023-09-01 Legends are arguably the most common narrative form of folklore in American society From sex acts to business transactions from fashion to food from heroes to heroin rumors and legends take on every charged topic Children circulate texts about toys and candy teenagers share stories about sex drugs and rock and roll young professionals commiserate over the hazards of the work world These stories address aspects of life about which we receive mixed or ambiguous messages Given that matters relevant to race remain confused and divisive in many corridors of American society it is not surprising that rumors and legends that reflect racial misunderstanding and mistrust frequently circulate Whispers on the Color Line focuses on a wide array of tales told in black and white communities across America Topics run the gamut from alleged governmental conspiracies possible food tampering gang violence and the sex lives of celebrities Such beliefs travel by word of mouth in print and increasingly over the Internet In many instances these stories reflect the tenacious level of racial misunderstanding that continues to vex efforts to foster racial harmony creating separate racialized pools of knowledge The authors have spent over twenty years collecting and analyzing rumors and contemporary legends from the ever durable Kentucky Fried Rat cycle to persistent beliefs about athletic footwear manufacturers and their support for white supremacist regimes These implausible stories serve many purposes they assuage anxieties entertain friends increase our sense of control all without directly proclaiming our own attitudes Fine and Turner consider how these tales reflect attitudes that blacks and whites have both about each other and about the world they face In an engaging and penetrating narrative they brilliantly demonstrate how by transforming unacceptable impulses into a narrative that is claimed to have actually happened we are able to express the inexpressible Legends are arguably the most common narrative form of folklore in American society From sex acts to business transactions from fashion to food from heroes to heroin rumors and legends take on every charged topic Children circulate texts about toys a antics of ten of Louisiana's high profile legal celebrities on both sides of the courtroom are the focus of this fascinating book. Editor S L Alexander brings together communications and legal experts Jennifer John Block, Erin Bremer, Lyn Koppel, Glenn Watts and Charles Zewe to delve into the legal foibles and follies that plague Louisiana's legal system. After an introduction to the intricacies of Louisiana's courtroom customs, each chapter provides a concise history of a colorful personality from former four term governor and convicted felon Edwin Edwards's outlandish antics to wealthy entrepreneur Chicken King Al Copeland's many peccadilloes. Included are characters from both sides of the law such as TV reporter Richard Angelico, Jefferson Parish Sheriff Harry Lee known as the Chinese Cowboy, DA Harry Connick Sr known as much for his singing as his courtroom performances and many more. Courtroom Carnival Famous New Orleans Trials presents a fascinating and educational read from the overview of what makes the courtrooms of Louisiana so unique to the exposés of the bizarre characters on both sides of the bench.

Courtroom Carnival S. L. Alexander, 2011-10-13 The outrageous
