Subcontracting System Low Sui Pheng, Sim Jia Zheng, 2018-08-14 This book focuses on current subcontracting practices in the construction industry and their effects on Singapore's construction productivity. It offers readers a better understanding of how the fragmentation of large and small firms in Singapore impacts construction productivity when operating under the commonly adopted multilayer subcontracting system MLSS which extends globally to the construction industries in other countries that have adopted the MLSS. The book also assesses the effectiveness of subcontracting practices in helping local contractors improve their construction productivity and thereby improve the industry's overall productivity. In closing it provides recommendations on how the problems associated with the MLSS can best be addressed and how its benefits can be capitalized on through organizational learning.

Safe Design and Construction of Machinery Dr Elizabeth Bluff, 2015-04-28 The origin of this book is the compelling evidence that a high proportion of machinery related deaths and injuries are attributable to genuine and serious risks originating within machine design and construction. Through a unique blending of rich empirical data coupled with safety human factors socio legal and learning scholarship Elizabeth Bluff provides both a nuanced account of firms performance for machinery safety and makes conceptual and theoretical contributions to understanding and explaining their performance. These insights provide the foundations to enhance regulatory design and the book's conclusion recommends some innovative directions for regulatory interventions to sustain the safe design and construction of machinery.

Development and Trends in Developing Countries: Case Studies John Rogers, Heap-Yih Chong, Christopher Preece, Chai Chai Lim and Himal Suranga Jayasena, 2015-03-06 Building Information Modeling BIM or the process of generating and managing digital information about physical representations of constructions has been effectively adopted and benefited numerous civil engineering projects across the globe particularly in developed countries BIM Development and Trends in Developing Countries addresses the philosophies and practices for improved application of BIM in developing countries Two case studies are presented in this reference one from Malaysia and another representing Sri Lanka Readers are given an introduction and background of the Malaysian and Sri Lankan construction industry and a critical review of BIM s philosophies development and applications in different stages of a construction project The authors present their recommendations on the way forward for BIM practices articulated from the two perspectives namely academia and industrial BIM practice The case studies in this book highlight the role of adequate BIM software techniques and the importance of governmental support in facing building challenges at the moment BIM Development and Trends in Developing Countries provides readers useful insights on the evolution of BIM practice in emerging countries and is a unique report on two specific scenarios in BIM development Engineers architects urban planners and policy makers around the globe seeking to understand practical BIM implementation and trends will find this reference invaluable Lean Construction 4.0 Vicente A. González, Farook Hamzeh, Luis Fernando Alarcón, 2022-12-30 This book introduces and develops the novel concept of Lean Construction 4 0 The capability of Lean Construction to effectively adapt the architecture engineering construction AEC industry to this new era of digital transformation requires a reconceptualization of the triad people processes technology as a foundation for the theoretical and practical framework of Lean Construction Therefore a shift towards Lean Construction 4 0 is required Lean Construction 4 0 is a new systems wide thinking approach where synergies and overlaps between Lean Construction and digital smart technologies go far beyond BIM to reshape the way we design manage and operate capital projects in the modern age of automation This pioneering new book brings together the views of world experts at the interface of Lean Construction and digital smart technologies in order to channel research efforts to introduce and discuss current research and practice challenges and drivers and future perspectives of Lean Construction 4 0 It is not the aim of the book to keep adding digits to the term Lean Construction to catch up with the industry revolutions as they go on Instead after reading this book it will be undeniable for readers that the triad process people technology as proposed by Lean Construction 4 0 is required to achieve an effective long lasting digital transformation of the AEC industry Thus the aim of Lean Construction 4 0 is better explained by what it evokes a future vision of construction systems comprising people processes and technology using Industry 4 0 5 0 as a basis for technological innovation in the AEC industry coupled with Lean Construction theory and practice as a jettison for improved processes and systems integration The Lean Construction 4.0 concept coined and developed in this edited book is unique and the chapters provide practitioners and academics with a provocative reflection on the theoretical and practical aspects that shape the Lean Construction 4.0 concept More importantly Lean Construction 4.0 proposes a rationale for the AEC industry not only to survive but to thrive

Counselling for Career Construction J. G. Maree, 2013-09-03 In this book career counselling history best practices as well as contemporary models and methods are brought together In reflecting on the past present and future of career counselling the story of the postmodern narrative or career construction approach and the model and methods used to advance careers in the 21st century is told A meta reflection concept is proposed based on career construction principles and practices and aimed at providing an examination of repeated reflection in career counselling Overall an attempt is made to craft a text that is not just specifically instructive but also more generally so Whereas the theory section includes much that is hands on and practical the inclusion of narratives in the practice section turns theory into practice Narratives illustrate the complexity and contextuality of partnering with clients toward re designed lives Ultimately the volume aims to demonstrate how Mark Savickas counselling for career construction approach can be used by clients to connect life themes in order to construct life portraits under the guidance of counsellors

Methods in the Philosophy of Science Sophie J Veigl, Adrian Currie, 2025-07-15 A guidebook to methods and methodology encouraging deeper engagement across the philosophy of science and beyond The last twenty years have seen multiple methodological revolutions in the philosophy of science There has been increased diversity concerning the questions asked who asks those questions who the relevant audiences are and what the techniques and tools involved are In Methods in the Philosophy of Science A User's Guide Sophie Veigl and Adrian Currie introduce this range of methods through both practical advice and philosophical reflection Each chapter introduces the reader to a method or set of methods in the philosophy of science discusses its advantages and limitations and provides practical guidance on how to learn skills relevant to applying the method The volume fulfills several critical roles First by introducing and discussing methods in the philosophy of science the collection increases philosophers awareness of methodological options of particular importance for younger scholars who are often not exposed to the diversity of practice Second the collection's practical focus will aid established philosophers in diversifying their own methodological toolkits Third collecting this diversity serves as a ground for philosophical reflection on what we as philosophers take ourselves to be capable of Fourth the collection hopes to increase interdisciplinary links between philosophy and other fields by laying clear the methodological continuity and complement between them

Chinese International Students and Citizenship Xiudi Zhang, 2020-02-22 This book investigates how Chinese international students reconfigure their sense of themselves as citizens when they reflect on what Chinese citizenship means in the context of New Zealand Adopting a case study approach it develops a theory relating to the thoughts of Chinese international students the theory is based on the communities schools family and state relationships of both their past and their contemporary daily experiences It finds that the struggles of Chinese young people lie in between being individuals and submitting to the general will of the family state and guanxi a Chinese concept of interpersonal relationships The book argues that the Western literature on citizenship is not sufficient in helping us understand how it is viewed in the Chinese contexts It offers readers a picture of what citizenship means for Chinese young people and the role of citizenship education in Modern Chinese society and demonstrates that the Chinese young people studied re educated themselves on citizenship in a way that is unstable and emotional This book makes important contributions to the literature on Chinese students who are studying abroad by going beyond the well researched topics of academic and social experience to explore deeper understandings of each individual student s relationship to family and the state in China and how the study abroad experience has developed new understandings of individual s relationships to China and new possibilities for contributing to Chinese society on return
