Local Memories in a Nationalizing and Globalizing World M. Beyen,B. Deseure,2015-03-10 In historical studies collective memory is most often viewed as the product of nationalizing strategies carried out by political elites in the hope to create homogeneous nation states In contrast this book asserts that collective memories develop out of a never ending triangular negotiation between local national and transnational actors

The Memory of the Second World War in Soviet and Post-Soviet Russia David L. Hoffmann,2021-08-26 This volume showcases important new research on World War II memory both in the Soviet Union and in Russia today Through an examination of war remembrance in its various forms official histories school textbooks museums monuments literature films and Victory Day parades chapters illustrate how the heroic narrative of the war was established in Soviet times and how it continues to shape war memorialization under Putin This war narrative resonates with the Russian population due to decades of Soviet commemoration which continued virtually uninterrupted into the post Soviet period Major themes of the volume include the use of World War II memory for political legitimation and patriotic mobilization the striking continuities between Soviet and post Soviet commemorative practices the place of Holocaust memorialization in contemporary Russia Putin s invocation of the war to bolster national pride and international prestige and the relationship between individual memory and collective remembrance Authored by an international group of distinguished specialists this collection is ideal for scholars of Russia across a range of disciplines including history political science sociology and cultural studies Memory and Change in Europe Małgorzata Pakier, Joanna Wawrzyniak, 2015-11-01 In studies of a common European past there is a significant lack of scholarship on the former Eastern Bloc countries While understanding the importance of shifting the focus of European memory eastward contributors to this volume avoid the trap of Eastern European exceptionalism an assumption that this region s experiences are too unique to render them comparable to the rest of Europe They offer a reflection on memory from an Eastern European historical perspective one that can be measured against or applied to historical experience in other parts of Europe In this way the authors situate studies on memory in Eastern Europe within the broader debate on European memory Contested Russian Tourism Susan Layton, 2021-08-10 This literary cultural history examines imperial Russian tourism s entanglement in the vexed issue of cosmopolitanism understood as receptiveness to the foreign and pitted against provinciality and nationalist anxiety about the allure and the influence of Western Europe The study maps the shift from Enlightenment cosmopolitanism to Byronic cosmopolitanism with special attention to the art pilgrimage abroad For typically middle class Russians daunted by the cultural riches of the West vacationing in the North Caucasus Georgia and the Crimea afforded the compensatory opportunity to play colonizer kings and queens in Asia Drawing on Anna Karenina and other literary classics travel writing journalism and guidebooks the investigation engages with current debates in cosmopolitan studies including the fuzzy paradigm of colonial cosmopolitanism The Index Guide to Travel and Art-study in Europe Lafayette Charles Loomis, 1890 The Index Guide to Travel and Art-study in Europe: a Compendium of Geographical, Historical, and Artistic Information for the Use of Americans Lafayette Charles Loomis, 1882 The Universal Guide of Standard Routes and Itineraries of Tourist Travel All Over the World Durrant Thorpe, 1907 All this is Your World Anne E. Gorsuch, 2011-08-11 All this is your World offers an exploration of the revolutionary integration of the Soviet Union into global processes of cultural exchange Anne E Gorsuch examines what it meant to be Soviet in a country no longer defined as Stalinist Heritage under Socialism Eszter Gantner, Corinne Geering, Paul Vickers, 2021-10-15 How was heritage understood and implemented in European socialist states after World War II By exploring national and regional specificities within the broader context of internationalization this volume enriches the conceptual methodological and empirical scope of heritage studies through a series of fascinating case studies Its transnational approach highlights the socialist world s diverse interpretations of heritage and the ways in which they have shaped the trajectories of present day preservation
