Great Painters and Their Famous Bible Pictures William Griffith,1925 Van Gogh's Ghost Paintings Cliff Edwards,2015-06-03 One of the most significant and revealing paintings by the world famous artist Vincent van Gogh was never seen by anyone but the artist himself The painting was so important to the artist that he painted it twice He was so conflicted about the painting that he destroyed it twice Cliff Edwards argues these two unique paintings Vincent created and destroyed are at least as important to understanding the artist and his work as are the two thousand or more paintings and drawings that do exist In Van Gogh s Ghost Paintings Edwards invites his readers on a journey that begins in a Zen master s room in Japan and ends at a favorite site of the artist a ruined monastery and its garden in the south of France Recovering the intent of van Gogh and the nature of his ghost paintings becomes a zen koan waiting to be solved The solution offers access to the deepest levels of the artist s life as painter and spiritual pilgrim The journey leads to the artist s choice of the biblical theme of the Garden of Gethsemane The answer to the mystery of the lost paintings illuminates the relationship of joy and suffering discovery and creation religion and the arts in van Gogh s life and work In this fascinating book Edwards solves a long ignored mystery that provides a critical key to the relation of van Gogh s religion and art

Select Notes Mary Abby Thaxter Peloubet,1903 The Christian Advocate ,1926 A Biographical and Critical Dictionary of Painters, Engravers, Sculptors, and Architects, from Ancient to Modern Times Shearjashub Spooner,1853 Pagans and Christians in Late Antique Rome

Michele Renee Salzman, Marianne Sághy, Rita Lizzi Testa, 2016 This book sheds new light on the religious and consequently social changes taking place in late antique Rome The essays in this volume argue that the once dominant notion of pagan Christian religious conflict cannot fully explain the texts and artifacts as well as the social religious and political realities of late antique Rome Together the essays demonstrate that the fourth century city was a more fluid vibrant and complex place than was previously thought Competition between diverse groups in Roman society be it pagans with Christians Christians with Christians or pagans with pagans did create tensions and hostility but it also allowed for coexistence and reduced the likelihood of overt violent physical conflict Competition and coexistence along with conflict emerge as still central paradigms for those who seek to understand the transformations of Rome from the age of Constantine through the early fifth century

A Biographical History of the Fine Arts Shearjashub Spooner, 1873 Cyprus Within the Biblical World James H. Charlesworth, Jolyon G. R. Pruszinski, 2021-03-25 This volume moves discussion of ancient Israelite culture beyond concepts of isolation and borders factoring in already well known insights from classical studies and ancient history that take greater account of the impressive connections between all the countries bordering the Mediterranean Sea Specifically the contributors focus on Cyprus and the Bible and offer archaeological and biblical insights to consider how and in what ways Cyprus and Cypriot culture was related to biblical life and perceptions Though the Mediterranean separated Palestine from Cyprus it also joined them archaeological finds expose significant trade relations and cultural commonalities not only in the Hellenistic and late Roman eras but for many centuries prior These relations developed and became even more intimate in the later biblical period as evidenced by early Jewish and Christian writings By exploring various methods of cultural contact the contributors suggest that further examination of cultural links between Cyprus and Palestine in the biblical period can repay dividends in understanding the development of ancient Israelite religion early Judaism and early Christianity A Biographical History of the Five Arts being memoirs of the lives and works of eminent painters, engravers, sculptors and architects... SPOONER, 1867
