Pieces of Home Becca Neil, 2025-03-28 Ryan Davis has lived in hell for the last fifteen years Kidnapped at age eight then beaten broken and forced into silence Rye managed to exist to survive When a chance phone call gives him an opportunity to escape he takes it But escape doesn't mean safety and freedom doesn't mean happiness And even if he can manage to find home the pieces of what used to be may never fit back together Jacob Wright has adapted In fact Jake would probably say he loves his life living in a beautiful home on a secluded beach on the Northern California coast It wasn't the life he'd planned But accidents happen And an accident was what stole his livelihood and limited his mobility six years ago He's happy now if not still living carefully avoiding things that used to make him happier When Rye shows up on Jake's beach lost fearful and on the verge of death Jake has to become a caretaker for a man who can't seem to speak and Rye has to put his trust in a stranger to survive An unexpected and tenuous friendship grows forming a deep bond full of possibilities that neither of them had imagined But even as they start to recognize what's in their hearts the past seems intent on reminding them both how truly broken they are Kathlamet Texts Franz Boas, 1901 The 21st-century Singer Susan Mohini Kane, 2015 Young
