So much so that he's ordered three dozen with no screaming faces and twice the fudge frosting for his seventieth birthday, a special event in more ways than one. It's to be held on fog-shrouded Lake Fleekom where twenty years ago his wife mysteriously drowned. But the next day when Emily arrives with her Boston cream donuts, she stumbles upon Rich's corpse. The poor guy wanted a unique birthday bash, just not one to the side of his skull. With a guest list of possible perpetrators left at the scene, Emily soon discovers that the Royalson closet is rattling with skeletons. As the fog thickens, motives mount and the tricks outnumber the treats. Emily fears that Rich may not be the last one in Fallingbrook to go out screaming.

Help Wanted: Female Sara Pritchard, 2013-07-09. So there was all that the ordinary twill of life, the ho-hum sturm und drang of the workplace, the ubiquitous absurdities, the annoying co-workers, the bloody deadlines, and even bloodier bottom lines, the bland eternal Sisyphean, absolute, unrelenting, surreal certainty of the day in and day out of it all. Life as a slice of white bread moistened with spit and rolled into a messy glob, a doughy ball that couldn't make the slightest dent in the iron gates of life. But then suddenly on August 27, 2002, all that changed. Suddenly Rae Jean's uneventful life began to leaven and swell with hypotheticals. What if grabbed a hold of it and pumped it a few times in its death grip? The world in Sara Pritchard's book is a known world and yet a strange place with a cast of homeless characters who wander in and out of the stories of the collection, all set in the same university town. The linked stories take place during the time when gender discrimination in the American workplace was blatant and when classified ads were labeled male or female accordingly. Sara Pritchard is the author of the novel In Stories, Crackpots, a New York Times Notable Book of the Year, and the critically acclaimed linked story collection Lately. She's lived in West Virginia for over thirty years and teaches in the Wilkes University Low Residency MA/MFA Creative Writing Program.
