Poetry li Worldings English Edition:

Worlding Latin America Marco Ramírez Rojas, José Carlos Díaz Zanelli, 2025-03-03 This book offers a contribution to contemporary discussions in the field of Latin American critical theory and literary dialogues by incorporating understudied archives and opening new lines of inquiry from a global perspective Organized around the central themes of transatlantic and transpacific connections the construction of world literary canons that include the Latin American continent and the cultural tensions between local and global intellectual practices this volume provides a comprehensive examination of several key theoretical and literary interventions Essays in this volume discuss issues of translatability geographical imaginaries local iterations of orientalist discourses the construction of editorial networks and the global circulation of cultural commodities

Petrarch's Canzoniere in the English Renaissance Francesco Petrarca, 2005 Seven centuries after the birth of Petrarch 1304 74 the nature and extent of his influence loom ever larger in the study of renaissance literature In this revised and expanded edition of Petrarch's Canzoniere in the English Renaissance Anthony Mortimer presents a unique anthology of 136 English poems together with the specific Italian texts that they translate adapt or exploit The result with its revealing juxtapositions of major and minor figures makes fascinating reading for anyone who wants to get beyond broad generalizations about Petrarchism and see exactly what English poets made of Petrarch's celebrated sequence Reviewing the first edition Professor Brian Vickers wrote An ideal text book for university courses in English or Comparative Literature The critical introduction is a fresh independent and accurate survey of the role of Petrarchism in the English Renaissance our literary history is being rewritten more accurately Catalogue of the Petrarch Collection Bequeathed by Willard Fiske Cornell University. Libraries, 1916 English Literature Richard Garnett, 1904 Worlding a Peripheral Literature Marko Juvan, 2019-10-12 Bringing together the analyses of the literary world system translation studies and the research of European cultural nationalism this book contests the view that texts can be attributed global importance irrespective of their origin language and position in the international book market Focusing on Slovenian literature almost unknown to world literature studies this book addresses world literature's canonical function in the nineteenth century process of establishing European letters as national literatures Aware of their dependence on imperial powers semi peripheral national movements sought international recognition through among other things the newly invented figure of the national poet Writers central to dependent national communities were canonized to represent their respective cultures to the norm giving Other the emerging world literary canon and its aesthetic ideology Hence national literatures asserted their linguistic cultural individuality through the process of worlding that is by their positioning in the international literary world informed by the supposed universality of the aesthetic English Literature: From the age of Johnson to the age of Tennyson, by Edmund Gosse Richard Garnett, Edmund Gosse, 1904 Angela Carter Translator and Translated Martine Hennard Dutheil de la Rochère, Marie Emilie Walz, 2025-12-22 Angela Carter Translator and Translated situates the British writer

Angela Carter within a global framework by documenting how foreign languages and cultures played a key role in her work before gaining attention internationally today notably in translation A published translator who used translation as a creative method to fashion her fiction Carter has now been translated into multiple languages The essays and interviews contained in this volume show that as it moves between tongues and cultural contexts Carter's work continues to initiate dialogues and inspire both critical and creative responses Organised in four parts it documents her activity as a translator and the generative role it played in her oeuvre and informed her translational poetics as well as the circulation of her work in translation on several continents complete with testimonies of translators and adaptors who stress its inspiring force

English Literature: From the age of Johnson to the age of Tennyson, by Edmund Gosse; with a supplementary chapter on the literature, from 1892-1922, John Erskine Richard Garnett, Edmund Gosse, 1923 English Writers Henry Morley, 1892 Worlding Sei Shônagon Valerie Henitiuk, 2012-06-16 The Makura no S shi or The Pillow Book as it is generally known in English is a collection of personal reflections and anecdotes about life in the Japanese royal court composed around the turn of the eleventh century by a woman known as Sei Sh nagon Its opening section which begins haru wa akebono or spring dawn is arguably the single most famous passage in Japanese literature Throughout its long life The Pillow Book has been translated countless times It has captured the European imagination with its lyrical style compelling images and the striking personal voice of its author Worlding Sei Sh nagon guides the reader through the remarkable translation history of The Pillow Book in the West gathering almost fifty translations of the spring dawn passage which span one hundred and thirty five years and sixteen languages Many of the translations are made readily available for the first time in this study The versions collected in Worlding Sei Sh nagon are an enlightening example of the many ways in which translations can differ from their source text undermining the idea of translation as the straightforward transfer of meaning from one language to another one culture to another Published in English Worlding the south Sarah Comyn, Porscha Fermanis, 2021-07-06 This collection brings together for the first time literary studies of British colonies in nineteenth century Australia New Zealand South Africa South America Southeast Asia and the South Pacific Islands Drawing on hemispheric studies Indigenous studies and southern theory to decentre British and other European metropolises the collection offers a groundbreaking challenge to national paradigms and traditional literary periodisations and canons by prioritising southern cultural networks in multiple regional centres from Cape Town to Dunedin Worlding the south examines the dialectics of literary worldedness in ways that recognise inequalities of power textual and material violence and literary and cultural resistance The collection revises current literary histories of the British world by arguing for the distinctiveness of settler colonialism in the southern hemisphere and by incorporating Indigenous diasporic and south south perspectives An electronic edition of this book is freely available under a Creative Commons CC BY NC ND licence A Concordance to the Poems of Edmund Spenser Charles Grosvenor Osgood, 1915 The Poetical Works of Edmund Spenser...: Minor poems.- v. 2-3. Faerie Queene Edmund Spenser,1910 Worlding Forster Stuart Christie,2013-11-05 Focusing on the literary works and career of British novelist E M Forster 1879 1970 this book argues that the writer adapted a much older literary form the pastoral to the purposes of writing about modern British experience The publication points out that Forster s pastoral fiction challenged conventional parameters for the British novel allowing for the emergence of his subsequent modernist classic A Passage to India including its critique of British imperialism The monograph also provides a rationale for why Forster subsequently turned his artistic focus beyond Britain embracing public radio under the direction of the British Broadcasting Corporation Worlding Postcolonial Sexualities Kanika Batra,2021-08-01 Worlding Postcolonial Sexualities demonstrates how late twentieth century postcolonial print cultures initiated a public discourse on sexual activism and contends that postcolonial feminist and queer archives offer alternative histories of sexual precarity vulnerability and resistance The book s comparative focus on India Jamaica and South Africa extends the valences of postcolonial feminist and queer studies towards a historical examination of South South interactions in the theory and praxis of sexual rights Analyzing the circumstances of production and the contents of English language and intermittently bilingual magazines and newsletters published between the late 1970s and the late 1990s these sources offer a way to examine the convergences and divergences between postcolonial feminist gay and lesbian activism It charts a set of concerns common to feminist gay and lesbian activist literature retrogressive colonial era legislation impacting the status of women and sexual minorities a marked increase in sexual violence piecemeal reproductive freedoms and sexual choice under neoliberalism the emergence and management of the HIV AIDS crisis precariousness of lesbian and transgender concerns within feminist and LGBTQ movements and Non Governmental Organizations as major actors articulating sexual rights as human rights This methodologically innovative work is based on archival historical research analyses of national and international policy documents close readings of activist publications and conversations with activists and founding editors This is an important intervention in the field of gender and sexuality studies and is the winner of the 2020 Feminist Futures Subversive Histories prize in partnership with the NWSA The book is key reading for scholars and students in gender sexuality comparative literature and postcolonial studies Chapter 3 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at http www taylorfrancis com under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license

Worlding America Oliver Scheiding,Martin Seidl,2014-10-22 Worlding America explores the circulation of short narratives in the early Americas through a combination of neglected primary materials and scholarly commentary Building on recent reconsiderations of American literature in light of transnational and hemispheric approaches it follows the migration of stories from various backgrounds and demonstrates how forms and themes developed in a new literary market that spanned the Atlantic world While short narratives prior to 1800 have been largely excluded from critical discussions as well as anthologies they give insight into the conditions of publishing and writing as well as the demand for brief entertaining pieces that was met by a wide variety of sources including sermons letters diaries travelogues and eventually magazines and newspapers Breaking with traditional concepts of period authorship and genre Worlding America groups the different types of narratives it anthologizes according to key subject areas such as Life Writing Female Agency or the Cultures of Print Each section is introduced by a headnote that explains relevant historical and literary developments situating each narrative in its cultural context and providing its publication history Suggestions for further reading will also be appreciated by scholars and students wishing to pursue research in these underrepresented forms

The Worlding Project Christopher Leigh Connery, Rob Wilson, 2007-10-30

Globalization discourse now presumes that the world space is entirely at the mercy of market norms and forms promulgated by reactionary U S policies An academic but accessible set of studies this wide range of essays by noted scholars challenges this paradigm with diverse and strong arguments Taking on topics that range from the medieval Mediterranean to contemporary Jamaican music from Hong Kong martial arts cinema to Taiwanese politics writers such as David Palumbo Liu Meaghan Morris James Clifford and others use innovative cultural studies to challenge the globalization narrative with a new and trenchant tactic called worlding The book posits that world literature cultural studies and disciplinary practices must be worlded into expressions from disparate critical angles of vision multiple frameworks and field practices as yet emerging or unidentified This opens up a major rethinking of historical givens from Rob Wilson s reinvention of The White Surfer Dude to Sharon Kinoshita s Deprovincializing the Middle Ages Building on the work of cultural critics like Edward Said Gayatri Spivak and Kenneth Burke The Worlding Project is an important manifesto that aims to redefine the aesthetics and politics of postcolonial globalization with alternative forms and frames of global becoming

Worlding Home Maren Larsen, 2025-10-28

Worlding Home interrogates the social spatial and architectural lifeworlds of United Nations UN peacekeepers accommodated in contingent camps throughout Goma the capital of North Kivu in the Democratic Republic of the Congo From 2017 to 2019 more than twenty of these camps existed in and around the city operating as sites of global outreach even as they generated new ways of being at home for peacekeepers and the peace kept population Through multisited ethnography and deep engagement with anthropological and urban theory author Maren Larsen explores the entanglements of camp and city Pushing against readings of Goma s peacekeeping camps as either more privileged enclaves or as outliers in camp studies when compared to refugee camps Larsen argues for an understanding of camp as a process and practice Between dwelling and journeying and here and there the everyday lives and embodied practices of Goma s peacekeepers and Congolese civilians co construct a city as elsewhere in which camping is a vital urban practice By offering a more expansive understanding of how UN peacekeeping camps fit within Goma's urban fabric Worlding Home reveals the intertwined sociospatial processes of making a home building a city and reimagining the world
