

Analyzing Poetry

Scavenger Hunt

Introduction:

This activity is a way to get students talking and moving. After you have introduced and gone over what it means to analyze poetry, you can use this as practice or a grade. There are two different documents: one that requires students to write their own answers or one with multiple choice options. These questions are meant to look deeper into poetry, not just the elements.

Materials:

- 11 page printouts of this activity
- 11 page protectors (if desired)
- 2 Different answer documents
- notebook paper (if you don't want to use the answer documents)
- Scotch tape

Setup:

1. Insert papers into page protectors
2. Hang scavenger hunt papers around the room (randomize)
3. Separate class into groups or pairs.
4. Give students instructions, and show them how to set up their paper (or give them the answer document)
5. Watch them have fun!
