Freeman, Benjamin Nienass, Rachel Daniell, 2014-02-01 In an age of information and new media the relationships between remembering and forgetting have changed This volume addresses the tension between loud and often spectacular histories and those forgotten pasts we strain to hear Employing social and cultural analysis the essays within examine mnemonic technologies both new and old and cover subjects as diverse as U S internment camps for Japanese Americans in WWII the Canadian Indian Residential School system Israeli memorial videos and the desaparecidos in Argentina Through these cases the contributors argue for a re interpretation of Guy Debord s notion of the spectacle as a conceptual apparatus through which to examine the contemporary landscape of social memory arguing that the concept of spectacle might be developed in an age seen as dissatisfied with the present nervous about the future and obsessed with the past Perhaps now spectacle can be thought of not as a tool of distraction employed solely by hegemonic powers but instead as a device used to answer Walter Benjamin s plea to explode the continuum of history and bring our attention to now time

Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1995 Homeless Advocacy and the Rhetorical Construction of the Civic Home Melanie Loehwing, 2018-10-30 Homeless assistance has frequently adhered to the three hots and a cot model which prioritizes immediate material needs but may fail to address the political and social exclusion of people experiencing homelessness In this study Loehwing reconsiders typical characterizations of homelessness citizenship and democratic community through unconventional approaches to homeless advocacy and assistance While conventional homeless advocacy rhetoric establishes the urgency of homeless suffering it also implicitly invites housed publics to understand homelessness as a state of abnormality that destines the individuals suffering it to life outside the civic body In contrast Loehwing focuses on atypical models of homeless advocacy the meal sharing initiatives of Food Not Bombs the international competition of the Homeless World Cup and the annual Homeless Persons Memorial Day campaign She argues that these modes of unconventional homeless advocacy provide rhetorical exemplars of a type of inclusive and empowering civic discourse that is missing from conventional homeless advocacy and may be indispensable for overcoming homeless marginalization and exclusion in contemporary democratic culture Loehwing s interrogation of homeless advocacy rhetorics demonstrates how discursive practices shape democratic culture and how they may provide a potential civic remedy to the harms of disenfranchisement discrimination and displacement This book will be welcomed by scholars whose work focuses on the intersections of democratic theory and rhetorical and civic studies as well as by homelessness advocacy groups
