Misconduct Stefan Franzen, 2021-05-12 This book offers a scientific whistleblower s perspective on current implementation of federal research misconduct regulations It provides a narrative of general interest that relates current cases of research ethics to philosophical historical and sociological accounts of fraud in scientific research The evidence presented suggests that the problems of falsification and fabrication remain as great as ever but hidden because the current system puts universities in charge of investigations and permits them to use confidentiality regulations to hide the outcomes of investigations The book documents the significant conflict of interest that arises because federal regulation gives universities the responsibility to conduct investigations of their own faculty with severely limited oversight The book is intended for young research scientists or anyone who wishes to understand the challenges faced by scientists in the workplace today The central thread in the book is an exclusive account of an experienced research scientist who was the first to expose the facts that led to the longest running research misconduct investigation in the history of the National Science Foundation The Grants Register 2024 Palgrave Macmillan, 2023-09-23 The Grants Register 2024 is the most authoritative and comprehensive

Managing A Public Speaker Bureau Stephen F. Gambescia,Evelyn Gonzalez,2010-02-23 When health and human services organizations new established or mature engage in a strategic planning process invariably the suggestion is made to offer a public speaker bureau to support their mission As a professional in the health and human services field you probably have encountered to some degree the services provided by an organization's speakers bureau You have heard speakers representing organizations or you may have been a staff or volunteer speaker for an organization Public speaker bureaus are ubiquitous Providing a public speaker bureau usually makes sense It provides an easy and relatively inexpensive way to impart useful information to your constituents or the public or serve as a marketing or fundraising tool A public speaker bureau can increase your visibility in the communities that you serve or would like to serve Throughout our score of years of experience in the health and human services fields we were struck by the lack of attention given to most organizations public speaker bureaus Again while most organizations felt the need to have a speakers bureau relatively little attention was given to the management and evaluation of this service In fact few organizations spent quality time determining whether or not a public speaker bureau was indeed needed and if so what should be its strategic purpose in serving the mission of the organization

My Life of Ministry, Writing, Teaching, and Traveling Mark G. Boyer,2021-02-04 In My Life of Ministry Writing Teaching and Traveling The Autobiography of an Old Mines Missionary I present my life as a child growing up in a French village about sixty miles south of St Louis in the middle of the twentieth century After eighteen years of life in Old Mines the oldest settlement in the state of Missouri I moved to St Louis for four years and then to St Meinrad Indiana for four years where education opened my eyes to a world very much larger than my village of origin Life continued for me after ordination as a priest in the Roman Catholic Church in Springfield and Joplin Missouri Because my life is the thread stitching together this book I have made it manageable by dividing it into four categories ministry writing teaching and travel These categories contain the stories of others whose life threads of seventy years are woven into my lifetime tapestry This is my autobiography one of a missionary from Old Mines to the thirty nine counties forming the southern third of the state of Missouri composed during my seventieth year of life The National Council for Higher Education and the Growth of the University

Sub-sector in Uganda, 2002-2012 Kasozi, A.B.K.,2017-05-05 The National Council for Higher Education NCHE and the Growth of the University Sub sector in Uganda 2002 2012 narrates the experience of the Ugandan NCHE in the establishment development and regulation of higher education institutions in Uganda from 2002 to 2012 In this period student numbers in higher education institutions increased from about 65 000 to some 200 000 and university institutions from about ten to more than triple the number The book discusses the role of a regulatory agency in the delivery of higher education the relations of universities and colleges with such an agency its impact on developing university capacities and leadership in creating and refining higher education ideas The experience of Uganda s regulatory agency the NCHE in those ten years should help both the Ugandan and other African countries higher education stakeholders in sharing lessons learned from this one case study The author sees the roles of regulatory agencies as vital in the initial stages of building a higher education sub sector and in periods of system transitions such as the current journey from elite to mass systems but is of the view that the university remains the home of knowledge creation dissemination and its application in society
