Noseweek, 1993 Sponsor, 1963 Pink Cars and Pocketbooks Jessica A. Brockmole, 2025-01-14 A fascinating history of how the automotive industry and consumers battled to define what women wanted in a car Since the commercial introduction of the automobile US automakers have always sought women as customers and advertised accordingly How then did car culture become so masculine In Pink Cars and Pocketbooks Jessica Brockmole shares the untold history of women's relationship with automobiles a journey marked by struggle empowerment and the relentless pursuit of independence This groundbreaking work explores the evolution of women's automotive participation and the cultural shifts that have redefined their roles as drivers mechanics and consumers Brockmole traces the rise of gendered marketing of automobiles over the course of the twentieth century Auto companies created ads that conformed to commonly held ideas about women's relationships with automobiles As the century progressed marketing to women became less informative and even more gendered the automotive industry portrayed women as passengers props or reluctant drivers interested primarily in aesthetics And yet by the 1970s female drivers were communicating directly with each other forming clubs and teaching each other through women focused repair manuals By examining market research studies advertising archives trade journals women's magazines newspapers driving handbooks and repair manuals this book shows how women bought their way into the automobile and masculine car culture Brockmole uncovers the stories of pioneering women who defied conventions such as trailblazer Alice Ramsey the first woman to drive across the United States in 1909 and Barb Wyatt whose contributions to automotive manuals broke new ground Women have always been users of technology and this book illustrates how the auto industry evolved as well as how it chose not to evolve in response Motion Picture Herald, 1961 Fashion Design, 3rd Edition Sue Jenkyn Jones, 2011-03-24 This book offers a thorough grounding in the principles of fashion design describing the qualities and skills needed to become a fashion designer examining the varied career opportunities available and giving a balanced inside view of the fashion business today Subjects covered include how to interpret a project brief building a collection choosing fabric fit cutting and making techniques portfolio presentation and fashion marketing and economics This third edition has been totally redesigned and extensively updated with new images showing the latest fashion trends and coverage of new techniques 1001 Marketing Ideas, The Times Index, 2013-02 Indexes the Times Sunday times and magazine Times literary supplement Times educational supplement Time educational supplement Scotland and the Times higher education supplement Simply Indispensable Janice Gilmore-See, 2010-08-13 A structured approach to advocacy for K 12 school librarians focuses their energy on an active path that showcases library programs and resources and expresses the essential role librarians serve in school and student success Keeping a library program vital requires regular reflection about current practices and a willingness to implement changes that will position the library and library staff should they be threatened with elimination Simply Indispensable An Action Guide for School Librarians helps librarians do just that The book begins with an explanation of the need to act and then offers a systematic approach to taking action Each chapter is devoted to an active path attracting patrons interacting with teachers parents administrators and the community communicating reacting to situations working for reinstatement if the worst happens and more The book covers advocacy from the subtle exercise of developing excellent programs to the overt outreach of Legi Days Additionally there is specific information about what to do when the RIF notice or pink slip arrives or if cuts are made including how to properly close a library After putting these actions into effect school librarians will have a cadre of supporters ready to speak for them should the need arise Researching Newsreels Ciara Chambers, Mats Jönsson, Roel Vande Winkel, 2018-09-14 This volume addresses the underscrutinised topic of cinema newsreels These short multi themed newsfilms usually accompanied by explanatory intertitles or voiceovers were a central part of the filmgoing experience around the world from 1910 through the late 1960s and in many cases even later As the only source of moving image news available before the widespread advent of television newsreels are important social documents recording what the general public was told and shown about the events and personalities of the day Often disregarded as quirky or trivial they were heavily utilised as propaganda vehicles offering insights into the socio political norms reflected in cinema during the first half of the twentieth century The book presents a range of current research being undertaken in newsreel studies internationally and makes a case for a reconsideration of the importance of newsreels in the wider landscape of film history Organizing Special Events and Conferences Darcy
