International Trade Policy and European Industry Marcel van Marion,2013-07-03 Trade policy has played a vital role in the decline of European electronics business The events that resulted in the disappearance of the European television industry of a European and Japanese video recorder format and of other European consumer electronics are directly related to market structures in exporting countries and business practices In this book factual business data shows and economic models explain how restrictive trade practices result in elimination of efficient competitors in export markets It deals with the memorable case how a videocassette recorder format was established by dumping and how politics enabled it An innovative tariff increase for CD players was invalidated by heavy dumping causing closure of production in Europe European CTV industry succumbed under permanent dumping and a series of biases as the interest of a state owned company and serious errors making trade instruments void and rules irreconcilable with international agreements Practical and theoretical examples and explanations some in detail of trade rules are provided The book sketches events carelessness prejudice or special interests arbitrary and false application of trade instruments and fraud resulting in disappearance of various European electronics business segments Black Enterprise ,1995-11 BLACK ENTERPRISE is the ultimate source for wealth creation for African American professionals entrepreneurs and corporate executives Every month BLACK ENTERPRISE delivers timely useful information on careers small business and personal finance Economic World ,1993
