Pidgin English Du Cameroun:

Sociolinguistic and Structural Aspects of Cameroon Creole English Aloysius Ngefac, 2016-08-17 Based on current data the book provides a detailed sociolinguistic and structural description of Cameroon Creole English with a special focus on aspects that are often used in creolistic literature as putative defining features of bona fide prototypical creoles It is the first comprehensive research monograph on the language that describes and situates its sociolinguistic and structural aspects within the context of current creolistic debate and answers the following unanswered questions How is the evolutionary trajectory of the language and which theory of pidgins and creoles genesis best accounts for its origin and development What is its current sociolinguistic status Is the language a pidgin or a creole What is the typological distance between the language and its main lexifier What is its relationship with the other West African contact languages and other creole languages In spite of the controversy that characterizes the field of creolistics regarding the defining characteristics of pidgins and creoles the book suggests for instance that if the different routes to creolization are recognized it will be much easier to come up with putative characteristics that define the developmental status of any contact language as is the case with Cameroon Creole English Structural and Sociolinguistic Perspectives on Indigenisation Eric A. Anchimbe, 2013-12-20

Descriptions of new varieties of European languages in postcolonial contexts have focused exceedingly on system based indigenisation and variation This volume while further illustrating processes and instantiations of indigenisation at this level incorporates investigations of sociolinguistic and pragmatic phenomena in daily social interaction e g politeness respect compliment response naming and address forms and gender through innovative analytic frameworks that view indigenisation from emic perspectives Focusing on postcolonial Cameroon and using natural and questionnaire data the book assesses the salience of linguistic and sociocultural hybridisation triggered by colonialism and recently globalisation in interaction in and across languages and cultures The authors illustrate how the multilingual nature of the society and individuals multilingual repertoires shape patterns in the indigenisation and evolution of the ex colonial languages English and French and Pidgin English Manual of Romance Languages in Africa Ursula Reutner, 2023-12-18 With more than two thousand languages spread over its territory multilingualism is a common reality in Africa The main official languages of most African countries are Indo European in many instances Romance As they were primarily brought to Africa in the era of colonization the areas discussed in this volume are thirty five states that were once ruled by Belgium France Italy Portugal or Spain and the African regions still belonging to three of them Twenty six states are presented in relation to French four to Italian six to Portuguese and two to Spanish They are considered in separate chapters according to their sociolinguistic situation linguistic history external language policy linguistic characteristics and internal language policy The result is a comprehensive overview of the Romance languages in modern day Africa It follows a coherent structure offers linguistic and sociolinguistic information and illustrates language contact situations power relations as well as the cross fertilization and mutual enrichment emerging from the interplay of languages and cultures in Africa Corpus Linguistics and African Englishes Alexandra U. Esimaje, Ulrike Gut, Bassey E. Antia, 2019-02-15 Corpus linguistics has become one of the most widely used methodologies across the different linguistic subdisciplines especially the study of world wide varieties of English uses corpus based investigations as one of the chief methodologies This volume comprises descriptions of the many new corpus initiatives both within and outside Africa that aim to compile various corpora of African Englishes Moreover it contains cutting edge corpus based research on African Englishes and the use of corpora in pedagogic contexts within African institutions This volume thus serves both as a practical introduction to corpus compilation Part I of the book corpus based research Part II and the application of corpora in language teaching Part III and is intended both for those researchers not yet familiar with corpus linguistics and as a reference work for all international researchers investigating the linguistic properties of African Englishes Global Fragments ,2007-01-01 While the world seems to be getting ever smaller and globalization has become the ubiquitous buzz word regionalism and fragmentation also abound This might be due to the fact that far from being the alleged production of cultural homogeneity the global is constantly re defined and altered through the local This tension pervading much of contemporary culture has an obvious special relevance for the new varieties of English and the literature published in English world wide Postcolonial literatures exist at the interface of English as a hegemonic medium and its many national regional and local competitors that transform it in the new English literatures Thus any exploration of a globalization of cultures has to take into account the fact that culture is a complex field characterized by hybridization plurality and difference But while global or transnational cultures may allow for a new cosmopolitanism that produces ever changing fluid identities they do not give rise to an egalitarian global village an asymmetry between centre and periphery remains largely intact albeit along new parameters The essays collected in this volume offer readings of literary theoretical and filmic texts from the postcolonial world These texts are read as attempts to articulate the global with the local from a perspective of immersion in the actual diversity of life worlds focusing on such issues as consumption identity politics and modes of affiliation In this sense they are global fragments locally refracted figurations of an experience of world wide interconnectedness The Handbook of Bilingualism Tej K. Bhatia, William C. Ritchie, 2008-04-15 The Handbook of Bilingualism provides state of the art treatments of the central issues that arise in consideration of the phenomena of bilingualism ranging from the representation of the two languages in the bilingual individual s brain to the various forms of bilingual education including the status of bilingualism in each area of the world Provides state of the art coverage of a wide variety of topics ranging from neuro and psycho linguistic research to studies of media and psychological counseling Includes latest assessment of the global linguistic situation with particular emphasis on those geographical areas which are centers of global conflict and commerce Explores new topics such as global media and mobile and electronic language learning Includes contributions by internationally renowned researchers from different disciplines genders and ethnicities

Language Planning in Africa Nkonko Kamwangamalu, Richard Baldauf Jr., Robert Kaplan, 2016-04-08 This volume focuses on language planning in the Cameroon Sudan and Zimbabwe explaining the linguistic diversity historical and political contexts current language situation including language in education planning the role of the media the role of religion and the roles of non indigenous languages The authors are indigenous to the situations described and draw on their experience and extensive fieldwork there The extended case studies contained in this volume draw together the literature on each of the polities to present an overview of the existing research available while also providing new research based information The purpose of this volume is to provide an up to date overview of the language situation in each polity based on a series of key questions in the hope that this might facilitate the development of a richer theory to guide language policy and planning in other polities where similar issues may arise This book comprises case studies originally published in the journal Current Issues in Language Planning

Language planning and policy in Quebec Jakob Leimgruber, 2019-09-23 This book presents an in depth study of the language policies present in the Canadian province of Quebec and considers them from a comparative perspective with special focus on Singapore and Wales In so doing it uses a mix of methods to look at the effects of language planning on language use questionnaires linguistic landscapes visible language in public space ethnography and psycholinguistic experiments Besides offering background information on Canada and Quebec the comparative element uses data from Singapore and Wales to shine a new light on how language is managed in Quebec

Sociolinguistics in African Contexts Augustin Emmanuel Ebongue, Ellen Hurst, 2017-05-11 This volume offers a new perspective on sociolinguistics in Africa Eschewing the traditional approach which looks at the interaction between European and African languages in the wake of colonialism this book turns its focus to the social dynamics of African languages and African societies Divided into two sections the book offers insight into the crucial topics such as language vitality and endangerment the birth of new languages a sociolinguistics of the city language contact and language politics It spans the continent from Algeria to South Africa Guinea Bissau to Kenya and addresses the following broad themes Language variation contact and change The dynamics of urban rural and youth languages Policy and practice This book provides an alternative to the Eurocentric view of sociolinguistic dynamics in Africa and will make an ideal read or supplemental textbook for scholars and students in the field disciplines of African languages and linguistics and those interested in southern theory or sociolinguistics in the margins

Gender-Based Differences in Exposure to and Usage of Camfranglais in Yaoundé Gardy Stein, 2022-03-18 This highly engaging and innovative book about the Cameroonian youth language Camfranglais explores gender based differences in exposure to and usage of the variety through a comparative study It thus adopts a rare gender based approach to the highly complex linguistic phenomenon Camfranglais a mix of French Verlan English Pidgin and Cameroonian languages While youth language studies flourish in sociolinguistic research this book's explicit focus on female speakers their linguistic attitudes and experiences of exclusion is unique It investigates which factors influence language choice among young urban speakers and especially what contributes to the overall male dominance in the usage of Camfranglais To achieve this goal the attitudes of both adolescents and adults as well as the channels of reproduction and distribution of the variety are examined A special focus is laid on the processes of conscious transformation and exclusion by which male speakers try to restrict the access for female speakers The book will appeal to academic scholars from a wide variety of fields such as African linguistics anthropology sociology and gender studies as well as the general reader who wants to learn about an exciting language contact scenario and its outcome

Contested Communities, 2017-11-01 This interdisciplinary volume investigates community in postcolonial language situations texts and media In actual and imagined communities membership assumes shared features values linguistic codes geographical origin gender sexuality ethnicity religion professional interests and practices How is membership in such communities constructed manifested tested or contested What new forms have emerged in the wake of globalization translocation and digital media Contributions in linguistic literary and cultural studies explore the role of communication narratives memory and trauma in processes of un belonging One section treats communication and the speech community Here linguistic contributions investigate the concept of the native speaker in World Englishes in socio cultural communities identified by styles of verbal duelling in diaspora communities physical and digital where identification with formerly stigmatized linguistic codes acquires new currency Divisions and alignments in digital communities are at stake in postcolonial African countries like Cameroon where identification with ex colonizer and ex colonized is a hot issue Finally discourse communities also exist in such traditional media as newspapers e g the Indian tabloid in English In a section devoted to narrative and narration the focus is on literary perspectives post colonial memory trauma and identity in Caribbean literary works by David Chariandy and Pauline Melville and in Australian Aboriginal fiction narratives of banditry in colonial India xenophobia and urban space in South Africa human animal community crossings and anthropomorphism in Life of Pi A third section on linguistic crossings in transnational music styles in global and Ugandan music industries examines language style and belonging in music cultures The volume closes with a controversial debate on the agendas of academic non academic and postcolonial Western communities with regard to homophobia in Jamaican dancehall culture

The papers in this volume define the departure from the margin to the centre assess emerging literatures and shifting language concerns dismantle the hegemony of colonial English propose alternatives to the imperialism that underlies globalisation and question hegemonic assumptions in language and literature The Manenguba Languages (Bantu A. 15, Mbo Cluster) of Cameroon Robert Hedinger, 2012-11-12

Published in 2004 The Manenguba Languages of Cameroon is a valuable contribution to the field of Asian Studies Essays on Language, Communication and Literature in Africa Joyce T. Mathangwane, Akin Odebunmi, 2016-02-08

Essays on Language Communication and Literature in Africa explores language choice questions together with domain driven lingua communicative and literary resources situated within the discourses of law culture medicine visual art politics the media music and literature in Africa It identifies the distinctive African paraphernalia of these discourses and foregrounds their real world and mediated cultural and societal values and highlights the Western presence through the inclusion of aspects of Shakespearean perspectives which bear universal tidings and speak to the African gender tradition The chapters attention to verbal and visual artistic communicative mechanisms underlines such engagements as multilingualism policies socio political declension social dynamism and cultural interventions that characterise the African setting These realities are discussed in impressive detail authoritative scholastic depth and effective stylistic tones that reflect the authors familiarity with the facets of African societies deducible from language communication and literature Cameroon Loreto Todd,1982 Spoken examples of the book Cameroon Loreto Todd,1982 This volume on the Cameroonian English contains two main sections The first section is devoted to the history of language contact in Cameroon contact with Islam and contact with Europeans the development of English in Cameroon the teaching of English in Cameroon in various stages of its history and on idiosyncratic aspects of this variety of English The second section is the text part of the volume consisting of sixteen printed texts mostly modern but also five extracts of historical significance eleven written texts essays on pedagogical subjects personal letters a folk history an academic paper and literary extracts and 13 oral texts interviews radio These texts have been selected because of their linguistic interest and because of the information they provide on Cameroonian life and culture Scribbles from the Den Dibussi Tande,2009 49 insightful essays which originally appeared on his award winning blog Scribbles from the den Page 4 of cover Complex Processes in New Languages Enoch O. Aboh,Norval Smith,2009-12-17 In recent years there has been a new interest in evaluating complex structures in languages The implications of such studies are varied e g the distinction between supposedly more complex and less complex languages how complexity relates to human knowledge of language and the role of the reduction or increase of complexity in language change and creolization This book focuses on the latter issue but the conclusions presented here hold of typological complexity in general The chapters in this book show that the notion of complexity as conceived of in linguistics mainly centres on the outer manifestations of language e g numbers of affixes This exercise is useful in establishing the patterning of languages in terms of their degrees of analyticity or synthesis but it fails to address the properties of the inner rules of these grammars and how these relate to the computational system that governs the human language capacity Put simply issues of complexity should not be equated with the complexity observed in surface patterns of grammars alone
