

Letter to the

EDITOR

Dear Editor,

The Loyolan published an article last week about an incident that took place a few weeks ago, which resulted in a non-LMU student being taken to the hospital at an event allegedly "hosted by Crimson Circle." I would like to voice a few of my concerns regarding the inaccuracies of this article and its depiction of Crimson Circle.

To begin, as the president of Crimson Circle, I can assure you that this event was not hosted, sponsored, or affiliated with our organization. This event was not publicized by Crimson, nor was it ever intended to be. While members of the organization reside at this home, other unaffiliated individuals do as well. With this being said, I appreciate the efforts made by the Loyolan to correct its initial wording, but this residence is simply an off campus residence and the labeling of it as a "Crimson Circle residence" significantly misinforms your readers.

Additionally, I feel that comments in this article do not accurately illustrate the values and mission of our organization. Crimson Circle is dedicated to serving both our LMU and greater Los Angeles community. An example of our positive contributions can be seen in another article that you published last week about our efforts to promote the LMU Bi-annual Blood Drive, together with our presence at local elementary schools and nonprofit organizations throughout Los Angeles.

The individuals living at this residence, both Crimson members and not, were responsible in ensuring the safety and well being of this non-LMU student. I feel that the Loyolan should be working toward informing our students of the positive and responsible contributions that our students and student organizations are making within our community. There is so much good that radiates from this campus, and that is what I would like to see promoted and praised.

Thank you,

Harrison Husting
President '16
Crimson Circle service organization

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR Nagindas Khajuria, 2014-10-09 I have known Nagindas for more than 32 years When I first met him in the early 1980s I was a newly qualified accountant and Nagindas had already been in practice for more than 15 years At the time he had just returned from a stint of work in the Middle East and since I was contemplating going to the Middle East for work also he was a source of much advice and guidance and indeed he was a kind of role model to me he inspired me to achieve his level of attainment Since I returned to the UK in the early 2000s Nagindas has acted as my accountant as I have moved away from the world of accounting and auditing The last 15 years has been the time when I have come to know Nagindas at a much closer professional and personal level Professionally I would say that he is a competent and thorough accountant with integrity and always has the best interests of his clients at heart I have found that he does not panic in crisis situations his approach to crisis management is to always act in a cool and calm manner On any particular aspect involving accounting auditing or taxation matter he first develops deep understanding of the subject matter he does not comment until he has all the facts and when he does he goes to the crux of the matter this is reflected in one of the companies he has set up At a personal level Nagindas is approachable and jovial and humorous at times many a times I can think of examples where his particular take on a matter was accompanied by humorous anecdotes which made a lot of sense and captured the essence of the subject or idea being discussed I personally think this is reflected in some of the Letters to the Editor that he has written to newspapers over the last decade and a half S B K Markets International Banking Royal Bank of Scotland , Pulling Newspapers Apart Bob Franklin, 2008-03-07 Pulling Newspapers Apart Analysing Print Journalism explores contemporary UK national and local newspapers at a significant and pivotal moment in their development when some pundits are busily if mistakenly announcing their demise The book offers a detailed examination of features which previous studies have tended to neglect such as editorial formats News Op Ed pages readers letters cartoons obituaries advice columns features and opinion columns aspects of newspaper design page layout photographs supplements online editions headlines the emergence of the compact and Berliner editions newspaper contents sport sex and Page 3 royalty crime moral panics and politics as well as the content of newspapers which is not generated by in house journalists advertising TV listings horoscopes agency copy and public relations materials This innovative and accessibly written collection provides journalism and media students with an invaluable study of newspapers in the digital age Action Manual , 1985 In the News, 3rd edition William Wray Carney, Colin Babiuk, Mark Hunter LaVigne, 2019-03-01 Now in its third edition In the News is the standard Canadian textbook on media relations used across the country The authors provide an introduction to media relations grounded in both communications theory and hands on day to day experience Whether you need to promote your issues to the nation or reach small targeted groups this book is your step by step guide In the News is perfect for communications students media relations practitioners in the private public and voluntary sectors and

PROCEEDINGS OF THE THIRD INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON GLOBALIZATION: CHALLENGES FOR TRANSLATORS AND INTERPRETERS Zhiqing Zhang, Youbin Zhao, Xinjie Wang, 2020-05-26 With the implementation of the Belt and Road Initiative and the development of Guangdong Hong Kong Macau Greater Bay Area the demand for translators and interpreters continues to grow in China The breakthrough in artificial intelligence which has contributed to an enormous improvement in the quality of machine translation means challenges and opportunities for translators and interpreters as well as studies of translation and interpreting Studies of translation and interpreting have been further expanded and diversified in the era of globalized communications The interrelation between translation and globalization is essential reading for not only scholars and educators but also anyone with an interest in translation and interpreting studies or a concern for the future of our world's languages and cultures By focusing on the connection between the two various researches have been conducted in all forms of communication between languages including translation interpreting cross cultural communication language teaching and the various specializations involved in such activities This has resulted in The

Third International Conference on Globalization Challenges for Translators and Interpreters co organized by the School of Translation Studies Jinan University on its Zhuhai campus and South China Business College Guangdong University of Foreign Studies November 16 17 2019 The response to the conference was once more overwhelming which was partly attributed to the previous two conferences held successfully under the same title Apart from five keynote speakers over one hundred and fifty participants came from universities institutions or organizations from mainland China Spain New Zealand as well as Hong Kong and Macao to attend the event contributing over 130 papers in total Among the keynote speakers are internationally renowned scholars in translation studies such as Dr Roberto Valde n professor of English Linguistics at the University of Oviedo Spain and the Chief Editor of Perspective Studies in Translatology Dr Sun Yifeng chair professor of Translation Studies and head of the English Department at the University of Macau Dr Tan Zaixi distinguished professor of Shenzhen University and Chair Professor of Beijing Foreign Studies University and Professor Emeritus of Hong Kong Baptist University After careful evaluation and compilation 90 papers have been selected for this conference proceedings which was summarized into the following four topics Translation and Interpreting Theory and Practice Translation and Cross cultural Studies Evaluation of Translation and Interpretation and Studies on the Teaching of Translation By no means is it difficult to find some interesting and thought provoking papers under each topic For example concerning Translation and Interpreting Theory and Practice To Translate or not to Translate That is the Question On Metaphor Translation in Chinese Political works by Dong Yu explains that in judging whether or not a Chinese metaphor can be translated into English an indispensable step is to decide whether or not the two cultural connotations can be connected But this can easily be influenced by subjective factors Yu has suggested some ways in which subjective factors could be controlled to some extent so that the translator could be more confident in his or her decision He has also suggested three steps The first step is to assume that the cultural connotation of the Chinese metaphor can be connected with that of its English version For example the metaphor in could be translated as rain or shine The second step is to find out whether or not this translated version is acceptable both linguistically and culturally in English The third step is to consider the systematicity of the metaphor in regard with the context in both the source and target texts This involves a process of recontextualization When it comes to Translation and Cross cultural Studies On Translation of the English Guide interpreter from the Perspective of Intercultural Communication by Fengxia Liua and Xiaoning Bi points out that inbound tourism serves as a window through which foreign tourists get to know China so the interaction between the guide interpreters and foreign tourists are the typical activity of cultural communication Foreign language speaking guides are usually regarded as people to people ambassadors or cultural ambassadors who have played an essential role in the international tourist industry Therefore they argue that it is extremely important for tourist guides to cultivate their cross cultural communication awareness enhance their overall communicative competence observe and distinguish east and west differences with multi dimensional perspective transcend cultural barriers and learn to use translation skills Studies on the Teaching of Translation is another interesting topic that has attracted enormous attention such as Business Translation Teaching from the Perspective of Metaphors by Dandan Li which explores application of conceptual metaphor theory in the translation process of business lexicons business discourse and business English culture so as to provide a new perspective in business English pedagogy Another study entitled Cognitive Studies in Translation by Xin Huang analyzes the cognitive studies of translation interpreting processes over the past three decades with focus on the issues examined the findings reached as well as the recent development She explains that cognitive studies of translation process examine the translation competence on line translation behaviors such as how the eye gazes and how the words are typed and the brain activities when doing translation Special interests are paid to the working memory problem solving the executive function and some linguistic relative factors such as text difficulty Over the past thirty years the interest in the field has been gaining considerable momentum and increasing issues have been involved Finally she concludes that with the advancement of technologies and interdisciplinary approaches the black box the previously unforeseeable cognitive activities of how human process translation can be unfolded Considering the importance of integrating theory with practice the proceedings are therefore compiled in such a way as to be balanced and inclusive in the hope of summarizing current accomplishments as well as providing certain insights for teaching and further research in the field of translation and interpretation studies The Writing Public Elizabeth Andrews Bond,2021-03-15 Inspired by the reading and writing habits of citizens leading up to the French Revolution The Writing Public is a compelling addition to the long running debate about the link between the Enlightenment and the political struggle that followed Elizabeth Andrews Bond scoured France s local newspapers spanning the two decades prior to the Revolution as well as its first three years shining a light on the letters to the editor A form of early social media these letters constituted a lively and ongoing conversation among readers Bond takes us beyond the glamorous salons of the intelligentsia into the everyday worlds of the craftsmen clergy farmers and women who composed these letters As a result we get a fascinating glimpse into who participated in public discourse what they most wanted to discuss and how they shaped a climate of opinion The Writing Public offers a novel examination of how French citizens used the information press to form norms of civic discourse and shape the experience of revolution The result is a nuanced analysis of knowledge production during the Enlightenment Thanks to generous funding from The Ohio State University Libraries and its participation in TOME Toward an Open Monograph Ecosystem the ebook editions of this book are available as Open Access OA volumes available on the Cornell University Press website and other Open Access repositories Vote Yes for Libraries Anne M. English: Wonder in a Nutshell Francis Lee, 2015-08-28 The learning of English there are a lot of good books on this subject already So why do I want to write another one It all started when I was invited to write a weekly blog for Special Broadcasting Service SBS a statutory national broadcaster in Australia and later provide a talk segment When I delved into the subject I began to realise the complexity of the task I could start from the most basic such as verb subject noun like all the good books do However one obstacle facing the learner is that all the basic elements are interrelated so knowledge in the others is often a prerequisite to probing into any A child born into his/her native language would experience all the basic elements holistically and not sequentially This opportunity is not available to learners of a new language It soon dawned on me that to overcome the above we need to firstly explain how the English speaking world has put its sentence together before presenting the various elements that fit into it This book begins with a conceptual understanding of the English sentence before commencing with basic grammar then proceeds to language skills and common faults As well a lot of cross referencing are employed so that the readers know where to access the related elements A chapter on letter writing is also included My excitement in writing this book goes further than just explaining grammar usage I want to share the beauty and efficacy of the English sentence such as one by Nelson Mandela former president of South Africa 2020 in book We dedicate this day to all the heroes and heroines in this country and the rest of the world who sacrificed in many ways and surrendered their lives so that we could be free And to those who already have a good command of the language I trust this book can serve as a handy reference
