The Plague Dogs Richard Adams, Robert Adams, 1983-12-12 Animal Narratology Joela Jacobs, 2020-12-15 Animal Narratology interrogates what it means to narrate to speak speak for on behalf of and to voice or represent life beyond the human which is in itself as different as insects bears and dogs are from each other and yet more as individual as a single mouse horse or puma The varied contributions to this interdisciplinary Special Issue highlight assumptions about the human perception of attitude toward and responsibility for the animals that are read and written about thus demonstrating that just as the animal does not exist neither does the human In their zoopoetic focus the analyses are aware that animal narratology ultimately always contains an approximation of an animal perspective in human terms and terminology yet they make clear that what matters is how the animal is approximated and that there is an effort to approach and encounter the non human in the first place Many of the analyses come to the conclusion that literary animals give readers the opportunity to expand their own points of view both on themselves and others by adopting another's perspective to the degree that such an endeavor is possible Ultimately the contributions call for a recognition of the many spaces moments and modes in which human lives are entangled with those of animals one of which is located within the creative bounds of storytelling

Aspects of Metamorphosis D.B.D. Asker, 2021-12-28 Aspects of Metamorphosis Fictional Representations of the Becoming Human explores the various forms of metamorphosis found in literature mostly modern fiction but informed by earlier examples and the premises upon which the literature of transformation may be said to depend Instances of metamorphosis are very widespread in modern literature but as yet there has been no attempt to describe this literary anthropological phenomenon from a larger perspective This study approaches such a task The focus of Aspects of Metamorphosis is on human animal fictional metamorphoses which embody the concept of becoming human Gilles Deleuze describes metamorphosis especially in Kafka as the becoming animal Across the wide range of examples of literary metamorphosis in different languages and cultures I describe the becoming animal as an aspect of the becoming human a radical approach to mankind's perception of itself and restoration to itself through an animal other Franz Kafka is in many ways an odd man out in the crowd of modern metamorphosists Other authors across borders political geographical and
