Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1993-04 An Empty Curriculum Sandra Stotsky,2015-02-19

Teachers cannot teach what they do not know This country has tolerated a weak licensing system for prospective teachers for decades This weak system has been accompanied by an increasingly emptier curriculum for most students depriving them of the knowledge and skills needed for self government An Empty Curriculum How Teacher Licensure Tests Lead to Empty Student Minds makes the case that the complete revision of the licensing system for prospective and veteran teachers in Massachusetts in 2000 and the construction of new or more demanding teacher licensing tests contributed significantly to the Massachusetts education miracle That miracle consisted of enduring gains in achievement for students in all demographic groups and in all regional vocational technical high schools since 2005 gains confirmed by tests independent of Massachusetts policy makers The immediate purpose of this book is to explain what Massachusetts did in 2000 to strengthen its teacher licensing and re licensing system to ensure that all teachers could teach to relatively strong K 12 standards Its larger purpose is to suggest that development of strong academic standards in all major subjects should be followed by complete revision of a state's teacher licensing system not as has been the case for several decades the development of K 12 student tests if this country wants to strengthen public education Sourcebook on Rhetoric James Jasinski,2001-07-19 This book is designed to introduce readers to the language of contemporary rhetorical studies The book format is an alphabetized glossary with appropriate cross listings of key terms and concepts in contemporary rhetorical studies An introductory chapter outlines the definitional ambiguities of the central concept of rhetoric itself The primary emphasis is on the contemporary tradition of rhetorical studies as it has emerged in the discipline of speech communication Each entry in the glossary ranges in length from a few paragraphs to a short essay of a few pages Where appropriate examples are provided to further illustrate the term or concept Each entry will be accompanied by a list of references and additional readings to direct the reader to other materials of possible interest
