

5 PARAGRAPH NARRATIVE ESSAY EXAMPLE

It's hard to go through school, and no one hears about F. M. Dostoyevsky. His work 'Crime and Punishment' is so much in the general culture that even those who have not read this extensive book know what it is all about. This is why the book is still a must read after so much time.

Some things are not figured out when reading a book. Because you did not learn to read it in that way and with that purpose, and that's all right. And that's why it's interesting to go back to some old books several times.

Raskolnikov is not a typical main hero. He's actually everything, but a hero. He kills, he fights with his own thoughts, bunks, and almost goes mad. The rascal, as his name suggests, lies in the gap between the two extremes: between the ideals he is fighting for, and between the gloomy reality in which a student is in his poverty. And just like his contrast with the name and the spirit, stands the Razumikhin. Although he is also a failed student, Razumikhin does not kill the pawnbroker, but earns his work, and in every situation he finds it hard to find a bad side. Simply adjust. Maybe like yin and yang that complement each other, that's why Raskolnikov and Razumikhin are the best friends.

There is an interesting issue that constantly rises with the mention of this novel. Although it has elements of a criminal novel, 'Crime and Punishment' is not one. There are elements of crime such as planning and executing murders, investigating, gradually bringing to the guilt, trials, judgments and punishment, but the main element of criminological novels is missing here. There is no uncertainty as to who committed the murder, which is the information we are dealing with since the beginning of the novel. That is why there are other categories in which we include this novel. Because of the fact of the fantastic outline of the psychological profile of Raskolnikov before, during and after the murder, this is a psychological novel. Through
