Learning, Work and Practice: New Understandings Paul Gibbs, 2012-08-14 This book's original contribution to a crowded literature on work and learning will attract strong international interest Its focus on the philosophy of learning at work brings a fresh perspective on a topic normally viewed through psychological anthropological and sociological eyes It assembles a host of internationally recognized scholars who reflect on the various philosophies of work based learning Full of distinctive and original contributions that provide perceptive insights into the subject the work will be a practical support to teachers trainers and researchers at the same time as it gives readers a clear philosophical grounding in learning at work It is however not simply a book about philosophy but a gazetteer of approaches to education in work that will sustain and inspire those who provide engage in and support the learning of new knowledge and skills in the workplace With adaptability to new employment opportunities so vital to existing workers the authors stand behind continued provision of work based learning in the face of tightening economic constraints

Lifestyle Migration Michaela Benson, 2016-05-06 Relatively affluent individuals from various corners of the globe are increasingly choosing to migrate spurred on by the promise of a better and more fulfilling way of life within their destination Despite its increasing scale migration academics have yet to consolidate and establish lifestyle migration as a subfield of theoretical enquiry until now This volume offers a dynamic and holistic analysis of contemporary lifestyle migrations exploring the expectations and aspirations which inform and drive migration alongside the realities of life within the destination It also recognizes the structural conditions and constraints which frame lifestyle migration laying the groundwork for further intellectual enquiry Through rich empirical case studies this volume addresses this important and increasingly common form of migration in a manner that will interest scholars of mobility migration lifestyle and culture across the social sciences

For a Church to Come Peter C. Blum, 2013-03-05 Taking a cue from one of the most famous postmodern thinkers Friedrich Nietzsche the essays in this book put forth experiments in thought rather than arguments for fixed conclusions Blum brings John Howard Yoder to the same table with Nietzsche Michel Foucault and Jacques Derrida and provides a provocative glimpse of what the resulting conversation might look like As Anne Lamott and others have recently insisted faith is not the opposite of doubt but of certainty Blum's essays explore some of our commonly held ways of talking about knowledge meaning commitment and action He suggests that some postmodern theoretical work often dismissed or assumed to be anti Christian is well worth bringing into contemporary Anabaptist Mennonite conversations about discipleship and corporate life Part of the Polyglossia series this book is intended for conversation among academics ministers and laypersons regarding knowledge beliefs and practices of the Christian faith

Deportation and the Confluence of Violence within Forensic Mental Health and Immigration Systems Ameil J. Joseph, 2016-04-29 The practices and technologies of evaluation and decision making used by professionals police lawyers and experts are questioned in this book for their participation in the perpetuation of historical forms of colonial violence through the enforcement of racial and eugenic policies and laws in Canada

Subtropical Mountain Forests of Las Yungas: Vegetation and Bioclimate Gabriela S. Entrocassi, Rosario G. Gavilán, Daniel Sánchez-Mata, 2019-11-15 The vegetation addressed in this book is biologically one of the most diverse on Earth with many characteristic taxa offering refuge and food sources for many resident and migratory animals Yet the forests of Las Yungas remain poorly known from a floristic and vegetation point of view This book seeks to fill that gap by studying the distribution of forest along an altitudinal but also a bioclimatic gradient The richness in species demonstrates that these forests are substantially more diverse than other subtropical mountain woodlands 103 diagnostic characteristic or indicator species were selected of which 29 are dominant 67 are exclusive selective preferential or differential and 7 are stenotic In addition 13 communities were identified and characterized These forests can be attributed to the Bolivian Tucuman biogeographical province South Andean Region Neotropical Sub Kingdom They are seasonal semi deciduous or evergreen micro and mesowoodlands growing on foothills hillsides ravines gorges and the edges of mountain ranges terrestrial communities as well as river terraces and beaches riparian communities Thanks to the range of new findings the content presented here will benefit experts in related fields such as geographers ecologists and botanists but also teachers nature guides those involved in the management of forest or conservation areas and policymakers
