Spurgeon the Pastor Geoffrey Chang, 2022-08-09 How would you get more than 5 000 people to show up at your church Almost every pastor feels the pressure to get people in the doors More people means more success more stability and more godly influence right Often in their zeal for fruit and growth pastors and church leaders adopt worldly mechanisms for church growth that end up undermining the very call God has given them Charles Spurgeon the Prince of Preachers was a pastor to well over 5 000 people in a day long before mega churches were the norm But you might be surprised to know that Spurgeon's vision for ministry was not pragmatic. He did not borrow best practices from the business leaders of his day. Rather, his ministry vision was decidedly staunchly biblical and theological in nature, and it was a ministry vision we ought to adopt more than a century later. In Spurgeon, the Pastor Geoff Chang, director of the Spurgeon Library at Midwestern Seminary, shows how Spurgeon models a theological vision of ministry in preaching, baptism, and the Lord's Supper, meaningful church membership, biblical church leadership, leadership development, and more. Don't get caught up in worldly methods to pursue ministry growth. Follow the example of the Prince of Preachers and entrust your ministry to the sovereignty of the Prince of Peace.

A Sense of Belonging Hilton Scott, 2022-03-08. This book takes an interdisciplinary approach to a societal challenge that both affects and is affected by the church in multi-racial, multi-cultural, and otherwise pluralistic communities. In certain contexts around the world, there are pertinent examples of the struggles that come with learning to live together in the midst of diversity and plurality, such as the post-apartheid Republic of South Africa. However, these more often than not racial and cultural struggles could be eased by developing worship services that are more relevant and inclusive. This, in turn, should instill a sense of belief and a way of inclusive thinking, culminating in more inclusive living. The approach developed in this book stems from the aphorism lex orandi, lex credendi, lex con-vivendi, or as we pray, so we believe, so we live together.

Building a Eucharistic Pedagogy for the Presbyterian Church of Korea Hyoung Seop Shin, 2013-04-29 Based on the critical conversations between education liturgy sociology and theology this book suggests an alternative eucharistic pedagogy for the Presbyterian Church of Korea by reforming eucharistic and curricular practices with attention to students specific local contexts This process includes the formulation of the definition of the new eucharistic pedagogy the reconceptualization of concepts regarding the eucharistic pedagogy and five steps as pedagogical strategies for a new eucharistic pedagogy for the Presbyterian Church of Korea including pedagogical guidelines for teachers and students This book will open the door for further educational and liturgical discussions of the work of contextualization in churches around the world Even though this study investigates a contextual pedagogy limited to the PCK this task needs attention and study in a larger context beyond the PCK The gospel is the worldwide truth that cannot be limited to a certain culture but becomes incarnated into each local culture Therefore this kind of contextual investigation between the gospel and culture will not be optional but imperative to all churches

Moving Jesus Beyond the Pulpit Dr. Sunday J. I. Etsekhume, 2014-05-29 Moving Jesus beyond the Pulpit Doing It the Community Way Can Help Church Growth describes the challenges facing Christianity and the church Although these challenges are very significant they help to boost the efforts of the present disciples of Christ to be good ambassadors to the world What prompted the writing of this book is that author Sunday J I Etsekhume clamored for a dramatic change in the way some churches do outreach Some churches only prefer to do outreach from the pulpit but ignored the practice in the community where they are situated The book also describes various ways in which the church can show love and care which indicates the various ways that can portray the church healthiness For I was hungry and you gave Me food I was thirsty and you gave Me drink I was a stranger and you took Me in I was naked and you clothed Me I was sick and you visited Me I was in prison and you came to Me Matthew 25 35 36 The book also argues against the idea that church leaders would not compromise their positions as spiritual leaders due to financial insufficiencies in order to become fleshy leaders The arguments further center on how the church can do evangelism without jeopardizing church principles and some of the Christian rules of conduct Finally the book focuses on the pulpit where sermons are preached without the preachers practicing what they preached hypocrisy Dr Etsekhume has written an insightful thoughtful and thought provoking rationale for getting back to basics in terms of the way the Church approaches ministry Moving from pulpit to pew from leadership to follow ship and from minister to member

Dr Etsekhume identifies the spiritual organizational and interpersonal challenges facing the Church and recommends Scriptural principles for addressing them By turns compassionate and passionate Moving Jesus Beyond the Pulpit is a wonderful reminder of the restorative renewing and revitalizing power of Christ both in the congregation and in the community at large Minister Sonja A West Associate Minister Mariners Temple Baptist Church New York NY Dr Sunday Etsekhume analyzes some of the issues that address the Church both from inside the institutional church and issues in the context that hinder the mission of the Church In this book one finds thoughtful and pragmatic methods for addressing some of the problems of the church and the larger community Moving Jesus Beyond the Pulpit is an important work that will be beneficial both to the church and the academy I highly recommend this work Dr Cleotha Robertson Ph D Assistant Professor Department of Old Testament at Alliance Theological Seminary New York City and the Senior Pastor Sound View Presbyterian Church Bronx New York
