Creating Supportive Spaces for Pregnant and Parenting College Students Catherine L. Riley, Katie B. Garner, 2023-12-01
This volume brings together interdisciplinary research theoretical perspectives and detailed explanations of examples to help colleges become supportive spaces for pregnant and parenting students Expanding the discourse around pregnant and parenting college students to a more interdisciplinary and international arena this volume follows the ground breaking monograph Title IX and the Protection of Pregnant and Parenting College Students Riley Hutchinson Dix 2022 The present volume defines this cohesive field and brings together separate voices to help colleges become supportive spaces The chapters explore academia's attitude toward motherhood families and carework the invisibility of pregnant and parenting students system wide negligence the forgotten nature of student fathers unacknowledged miscarriages organized policy change efforts involved agencies of change the troubling presence of coercion and more While arguing that barriers currently prevent colleges from becoming supportive spaces the volume asserts that improvements are both feasible and vital for ensuring that institutions of higher education are complying with Title IX a U S federal law Offering interdisciplinary research explanations of problems and paths for progress this edited volume will be useful to scholars researchers administrators and activists working to support pregnant and parenting students Various chapters will also interest those working in higher education administration education policy reproductive health gender studies and health and organizational communication more broadly Supporting pregnant and parenting college students however is a shared responsibility belonging to all members of a campus community accordingly this volume is for every institution that plans to comply with Title IX

A woman's place? Ciara Meehan, 2023-02-28 This book explores representations of the domestic in Irish women's magazines Published in 1960s Ireland during a period of transformation they served as modern manuals for navigating everyday life Traditional themes dating marriage and motherhood dominated But editors also introduced conflicting voices to complicate the narrative Readers were prompted to reimagine their home life and traditional values were carefully subverted The domestic was shown to be a negotiable concept in the coverage of such issues as the body and reproductive rights working wives and equal pay Dominant societal perceptions of women were also challenged through the inclusion of those who were on the margins widows unmarried mothers and never married women This book considers the motivations of editors the role of readers and the influence of advertisers in shaping complex debates about women in society in 1960s Ireland

Cumulated Index Medicus, 1977 Adolescent Health, Services, and Pregnancy Prevention and Care Act of 1978 United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Human Resources, 1978 Damaged Angels Bonnie Buxton, 2010-06-11 An adoptive mother writes the book she wishes had been available sympathetic up to date useful hopeful and highly readable when her family welcomed a little girl not knowing that she struggled with Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorder FASD When Bonnie and her husband adopted Colette she was three years old Big for her age she had walked alone

at eleven months had excellent verbal skills a thick mane of curly blonde hair and a sturdy little body They were thrilled with their gregarious second daughter a great sister for six year old Cleo But although Colette was bright and delightful a litany of problems soon presented itself By the time she hit first grade her parents were coping with her frequent stealing and lying and her learning difficulties which necessitated special education At the age of fourteen she discovered drugs and sex by eighteen in spite of the love and support provided by her adoptive family she was a crack addict living on the streets After seven frustrating years of consulting numerous therapists a TV item gave Bonnie the answer and sent her on a quest for diagnosis and help for her daughter In general our society has little compassion for those thousands of individuals whose damaged brains lead them to crime homelessness and addiction Few realize that they behave as they do as the result of brain damage caused by their mothers drinking during pregnancy FASD is Canada's most common most expensive yet most preventable mental disability FASD can be beaten but as usual education is key This book is a tool that could help the 300 000 Canadians currently affected by FASD and reduce the number of babies born with FASD in the future FASD is a new umbrella term that includes Fetal Alcohol Syndrome FAS Fetal Alcohol Effects FAE Alcohol Related Neurodevelopmental Disorder ARND and Partial Fetal Alcohol Syndrome pFAS FASD is caused by women drinking alcohol while pregnant So called moderate drinking can do considerable damage to the fetal brain Individuals with FASD may seem normal but their damaged brains can result in learning disabilities impulsivity lying stealing tantrums violence and aggression inability to predict consequences or learn from experience lack of conscience and addictions FASD is the biggest single cause of intellectual impairment in most industrialized countries Research indicates that a high percentage of homeless people and at least 25% of juvenile and adult offenders suffer from undiagnosed FASD More than 50% of individuals with FASD will experience school drop out trouble with the law addiction and unemployment More than 90% will experience mental health problems The general public not to mention many professionals know very little about either FASD or the fact that no amount of alcohol in pregnancy has been established as safe for the fetus
