Newsom,2019-06-03 This collection of essays by Carol A Newsom explores the indispensable role that rhetoric and hermeneutics play in the production and reception of biblical and Second Temple literature Some of the essays are methodological and programmatic while others provide extended case studies Because rhetoric is as Kenneth Burke put it a strategy for encompassing a situation the analysis of rhetoric illumines the ways in which texts engage particular historical moments shape and reshape communities and even construct new models of self and agency The essays in this book not only explore how ancient texts hermeneutically engage existing traditions but also how they themselves have become the objects of hermeneutical transformation in contexts ranging from ancient sectarian Judaism to the politics of post World War I and II Germany and America to modern film criticism and feminist re reading

Liberalism with Honor Sharon R. Krause,2002-04-15 Why do men and women sometimes risk everything to defend their liberties What motivates principled opposition to the abuse of power In Liberalism with Honor Sharon Krause explores honor as a motive for risky and difficult forms of political action She shows the sense of honor to be an important source of such action and a spring of individual agency more generally Krause traces the genealogy of honor including its ties to conscientious objection and civil disobedience beginning in old regime France and culminating in the American civil rights movement She examines the dangers intrinsic to honor and the tensions between honor and modern democracy but demonstrates that the sense of honor has supported political agency in the United States from the founders to democratic reformers such as Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Martin Luther King Jr Honor continues to hold interest and importance today because it combines self concern and personal ambition with principled higher purposes and so challenges the disabling dichotomy between self interest and self sacrifice that currently pervades both political theory and American public life

Culture of Shame / Culture of Guilt Thomas Schirrmacher, 2018-05-10 Until now theology has hardly paid sufficient attention to the difference between cultures that are primarily guilt oriented and those that are primarily shame oriented Thomas Schirrmacher s work is noteworthy for the way he informs the reader not only as it relates to missionary theology and activity It goes on to inform the reader on this important topic as it relates to educational theory ethics and counseling from the points of view of both cultural anthropological and theology The work demonstrates that a total contrast between shame and guilt orientations does not correspond to the Biblical message nor is it derived from the tradition of the Occident and from churches of Reformation origin Rather shame was already considered in and integrated into these perspectives The work is particularly challenging insofar as it calls for closer attention to be paid to the significance of the undisputed differences between shame oriented and guilt oriented cultures for the Christian doctrine of sin and also of reconciliation with God through Christ Prof Dr Ulrich Eibach Professor for Systematic Theology Bonn Germany Prof Dr theol Dr phil Thomas Schirrmacher PhD ThD DD is professor of the sociology of religion at the State University of the West in Timisoara Romania Distinguished Professor of Global Ethics and International Development at William Carey University in Shillong Meghalaya India as well as president and professor of ethics at Martin Bucer European Theological Seminary and Research Institutes with branches in Bonn Berlin Zurich Innsbruck Prague Istanbul and Sao Paulo Schirrmacher has held guest professorships and has given special lectures at universities on all continents Schirrmacher is chair of the Theological Commission of the World Evangelical Alliance WEA director of the International Institute for Religious Freedom Bonn Cape Town Colombo and Ambassador for Human Rights of WEA the WEA represents churches with 600 million members altogether He also is a member of the board

Aegean Interactions Christy Constantakopoulou, 2017-09-15 The third century BC was a particularly troubled period of ancient Greek history when the Aegean sea became the main stage for power struggles between various royal circles and dynasties including the Antigonids and the Ptolemies This volume addresses the history of interaction in the Aegean world during this time by focusing on the island of Delos which housed one of its most important regional sanctuaries It draws on contemporary network theory and approaches to regionalism as well as thorough investigation of the Delian epigraphic and material evidence to explore how and to what degree the islands of the southern Aegean formed active networks of political religious and cultural interaction Four case studies examine different types of networks on and around Delos covering the federal organisation of islands into the so called Islanders League the participation of Delian and other agents in the processes of monumentalisation of the Delian landscape the network of honours of the Delian community and the social dynamics of dedication through the record of dedicants in the Delian inventories They reveal not only that these kinds of regional interaction in the southern Aegean were pervasive but also that they had a significant impact on the creation of a regional identity one that persisted despite the political changes of the age
