

College Scholarship/ Admission Essay

Think About Your Purpose - Not "selling yourself " or "getting in," but simply being yourself-- which usually means writing about yourself in human, rather than superhuman, terms. For example, if your transcript reveals that you are a stellar student of French, you might write about the time a Parisian pointedly responded in English to your request in French for directions to the Louvre.

Focus - Instead of generalizing your experience, for example saying something like, "I enjoy sports", be as specific as you can be. Write about the thrill of catching a fly ball deep to centerfield just before it became a home run, or of a Little League career spent waiting for someone, anyone, to hit the ball to your position so that you could stop studying the grass and watching the butterflies.

Use Precise And Descriptive Language - Imagine that each word you write costs you a dollar, and that you don't have unlimited funds. Instead of writing "On a yearly basis, we would spend five hours driving to the lake, where I never gave up the hope of meeting the boy that would be my Prince Charming," write "Every August, we trekked to Lake Apponaug, where I always hoped to meet my Prince Charming."

Give Your Essay Momentum - Make the parts work together and move toward a thoughtful conclusion. In an essay about the summer you spent working in a marine research laboratory, a paragraph on the unreliable bus that took you there each day should be eliminated.

Use Correct Grammar, Spelling, and Punctuation - Don't distract your reader from what you're stating by stating it incorrectly. Misspellings, typos, and grammatical errors--such as subjects that don't agree with verbs--make the reader's task more difficult and suggest that you don't care much about the impression you make. Although nobody's perfect, strive for perfection on your application. Unfortunately, your reader may interpret your mistakes, no matter how innocent, to be signs of laziness, indifference, or even dishonesty.

Give Your Essay Momentum - Make the parts work together and move toward a thoughtful conclusion. In an essay about the summer you spent working in a marine research laboratory, a paragraph on the unreliable bus that took you there each day should be eliminated.

Lawyering Europe Antoine Vauchez, Bruno de Witte, 2013-03-13 While scholarly writing has dealt with the role of law in the process of European integration so far it has shed little light on the lawyers and communities of lawyers involved in that process Law has been one of the most thoroughly investigated aspects of the European integration process and EU law has become a well established academic discipline with the emergence more recently of an impressive body of legal and political science literature on European law in context Yet this field has been dominated by an essentially judicial narrative focused on the role of the European courts underestimating in the process the multifaceted roles lawyers and law play in the EU polity notably the roles they play beyond the litigation arena This volume seeks to promote a deeper understanding of European law as a social and political phenomenon presenting a more complete view of the European legal field by looking beyond the courts and at the same time broadening the scholarly horizon by exploring the ways in which European law is actually made To do this it describes the roles of the great variety of actors who stand behind legal norms and decisions bringing together perspectives from various disciplines law political science political sociology and history to offer a global multi disciplinary reassessment of the role of law and lawyers in the European integration process Bioethanol Fuel Production Processes.
