Each project features strategies for aligning service and curricular goals, tips for involving students in decision making, guidelines for managing different phases of the project, activities that foster reflection and self-evaluation, tips for differentiating by tapping into multiple intelligences. In this single resource, teachers will find everything they need to successfully implement service learning projects, helping students gain deeper understandings of content while positively impacting their communities.

How to Get Your Share of the 30-Plus Billion Dollars Being Offered by U. S. Foundations Richard Helweg, 2010 In this book, you will learn about the different types of foundations, including private, independent, corporate, family, and community, and how to identify a foundation to fund your project. You will learn how to qualify for grants, how to write a proposal, how to locate foundations in your subject area, geographic area, and that provide the support you need, and how to fill out a grant application. How to Get Your Share of the 30 Plus Billion Dollars Being Offered by U. S. Foundations will also teach you how to create an effective proposal by walking you through each section, including the cover letter, the executive summary, the statement of need, the goals and objectives, the specific and measurable outcomes, the assessment process, and the budget. You will even learn how to write letters of inquiry that will grab the foundation's attention. This book is filled with valuable information for organizations seeking funding from foundations. In addition to the list of directories and resources we have compiled, there are also insightful interviews with foundation officers and grant recipients, as well as sample proposals, letters, worksheets, and checklists. By using these tools and following the advice in this comprehensive guide, you will be able to find funding and achieve your organization's goals.
