

Four candles

The first candle represents our grief.

The pain of losing you is intense.

It reminds us of the depth of our love for you.

This second candle represents our courage.

To confront our sorrow, to comfort each other,
to change our lives.

This third candle we light in your memory.

For the times we laughed, the times we cried, the times we were angry with each other, the silly things you did, and for the caring and joy you gave us.

This fourth candle we light for our love.

We light this candle that your light will always shine, that we will share your memories with our family and friends and cherish the special place in our hearts that is always be reserved for you. We thank you for the gift your living brought to each of us.

We love you. We remember you.

Readings For Candle Light Memorial Services:

Funeral and Memorial Service Readings, Poems and Tributes Rachel R. Baum, 2007-11-28 Words can fail even the most articulate when called upon to speak at a loved one's funeral or memorial occasion. The bereaved desires to say something meaningful yet services are often held so quickly that there is little time to find something appropriate at the library or bookstore. This book is a collection of poetry and prose appropriate for reading at a funeral or memorial service. To assist the reader in finding a suitable passage, the book is divided into eleven chapters. There are tributes for mothers, fathers, children, spouses, and soulmates, friends, siblings, and other close relatives, soldiers and victims of war or violence, pets, and general readings appropriate for men, women, or any loved one. These selections will also prove helpful for clergy, counselors, and hospice, hospital, and funeral professionals. Appendices list resources and support organizations, and each selection is indexed by author, title, and first line. A special additional index references pieces by famous uses, such as in a film, novel, or celebrity's funeral, so readers can locate a passage they remember from its context.

The Unitarian Register, 1925 The Suicide Funeral (or Memorial Service) Melinda Moore, Daniel A. Roberts, 2017-05-16 To our knowledge, nothing with The Suicide Funeral or Memorial Service Honoring Their Memory Comforting Their Survivors scope and depth has ever been published. This is an aid to anyone who will be called upon to do a funeral for the nearly 43,000 suicides in America each year. This book is designed to assist clergy, chaplains, and other faith leaders as they develop sermons and homilies for a funeral service. Its mandate is to help those searching for inspiration, even though they may feel confused or uncertain, undertaking such a daunting assignment. Those who plan and lead a funeral service may enable family and friends to understand and participate intentionally in their grief process. Clergy can have a significant impact on how people react to the suicide, as well as provide comfort and assistance to those left behind on their journey through grief. Your leadership will influence how the suicide's bereaved are treated by others in the days, weeks, and months following the death. Because suicide does not discriminate by race, socio-economic status, or religion, a broad range of faiths and denominations are represented in this book's sermons, services, and perspectives.

Christian Register and Boston Observer, 1928 Pet Parents Coleen Ellis, 2011-07 When Coleen Ellis' beloved dog died in 2003, she discovered that she found no good resources to assist her with her grief. To help others in this situation, she opened the first standalone pet funeral home in the United States in Indianapolis. In this guidebook, she helps pet parents, veterinarians, death-care professionals, and others celebrate the special bonds we share with our animal companions.

Monthly Packet of Evening Readings for Members of the English Church (earlier "for Younger Members of the English Church") ,1881 The Death of an Adult Child Jeanne Webster Blank,2016-11-03 This book was written to be a comfort and guide for bereaved parents whose adult child has died to show by sharing our experiences that we are not alone in our responses to our child s death that we are not weak defective in character or otherwise inadequate because of the way we grieve to spell out ways in which some of us have increased our understanding of our condition found solace dispelled guilt and anger overcome depression come to terms with survivors and memorialized our deceased children Questionnaires were sent to more than sixty bereaved parents of adult children who died and many anonymous examples from these questionnaires are used throughout the book

Death and Religion in a Changing World Kathleen Garces-Foley,2014-12-18 This comprehensive study of the intersection of death and religion offers a unique look at how religious people approach death in the twenty first century Previous scholarship has largely focused on traditional beliefs and paid little attention to how religious traditions evolve in relation to their changing social context Employing a sociological approach Death and Religion in a Changing World describes how people from a wide variety of faiths draw on and adapt traditional beliefs and practices as they deal with death in modern societies The book includes coverage of newly emerging social and religious phenomena that are only just beginning to be analyzed by religion scholars such as public shrines the role of the media spiritual bereavement groups and the use of the Internet in death practices Jewish Family Celebrations Arlene Cardozo,1985-02-15 The author describes her own family's customs and surveys the foods songs blessings and other traditional ways of observing at home the Jewish holidays throughout the year Delayed Impact Franklin Bialystok,2000 In Delayed Impact Franklin Bialystok explores the evolution of the legacy of the Holocaust in the collective memory of the post war Canadian Jewish community He seeks to understand why the Holocaust's effect was relatively muted up to 1960 moved to the forefront with the rise of antisemitism in the 1960s and became a prominent concern and marker for Jewish ethnic identity after 1973 Bialystok begins by examining the years immediately following World War II showing that Canadian Jews were not psychologically equipped to comprehend the enormity of the Holocaust Unable to grasp the extent of the atrocities that had occurred in a world that was not theirs Canadian Jews were not prepared to empathize with the survivors and a chasm between the groups developed and widened in the next two decades He shows how the efflorescence of marginal but vicious antisemitism in Canada in the 1960s in combination with more potent antisemitic outrages internationally and the threat to Israel's existence led to an interest in the Holocaust He demonstrates that with the politicisation of the survivors and the maturation of the post war generation of Canadian Jews in the 1980s the memory of the Holocaust became a pillar of ethnic identity Combining previously unexamined documents and interviews with leaders in the Jewish community in Canada Bialystok shows how the collective memory of an epoch making event changed in reaction to historical circumstances His work enhances our understanding of immigrant adaptation and ethnic identification in a multi cultural society in the context of the post war economic and social changes in the Canadian landscape and sheds new light on the history of Canadian Jewry opening a new perspective on the effects of the Holocaust on a community in transition Franklin Bialystok is a part time lecturer in the Department of History at the University of Toronto and the University of Waterloo He has published numerous articles on the Holocaust in various journals and edited collections PEDIATRIC MUSIC THERAPY Wanda B. Lathom-Radocy,2014-06-01 The book includes relevant medical psychological and developmental information to help service providers and parents to understand children with disabilities In this revised edition the author has updated or eliminated some of the medical information and added more related music therapy literature This book can be used as a valuable handbook for clinicians Also it may be used as a primary or supplemental textbook in classes to prepare music therapy students to work with children who have disabilities All music therapy students who complete an undergraduate curriculum should know the characteristics and common needs of the major disabilities discussed in this book In addition class work and clinical experiences must include basic techniques and materials used to accomplish the goals and objectives set for each child This is addressed in a manner that will be useful to all personnel working with children with disabilities The first two chapters describe the process of assessment and delineation of goals in music therapy which leads to the design of the music therapy portion of the IEP or care plan

Subsequent evaluation allows progress to be stated objectively The remaining chapters describe each population of children to be served with emphasis on medical and psychological characteristics unique to each population and specific goals and procedures to be used in music therapy The CAMEOS model is used in this book to address the child s Communication Academic Motor Emotional Organizational and Social needs and ways these may be addressed through music therapy Whether the child is homebound included in regular classes seen in a resource room or special education program or in hospital care he she has needs that can be described within the CAMEOS model Music therapy may provide service in each of these areas The Living Church ,1914
