

Dear Principle of Bluebird High School

It is my pleasure to recommend Sarah Martin to fill the open position of guidance counselor at Bluebird High School. Sarah is one of the counselors here at ABCD Middle school and desires to transition into the high school environment. As much as I will miss having Sarah on the counseling staff at Middle School, I am happy to see her take her career to the next level.

Sarah has provided encouragement and practical assistance for students that struggle with social problems. I believe she can make the necessary adjustment in her counseling methods and techniques to transition from working with middle to high school students.

Sarah has a specialty to work with a student who has disabilities. She can recognize the first signs of learning disabilities. The student with whom Sarah has worked has experience improvement well.

I am able to provide detailed work records for Sarah Martin if it will help you to make a decision. I hope you consider seriously for Sarah to fill the position of High School guidance counselor. For more information to discuss, please call me at 777-889-345 or by email at McMeney@gmail.com.

Sincerely,

handbook examines policy research on school counseling across a wide range of countries and offers guidelines for developing counseling research and practice standards worldwide. It identifies the vital role of counseling in enhancing students' educational performance and general wellbeing and explores effective methods for conducting policy research with practical examples. Chapters present the current state of school based counseling and policy from various countries focusing on national and regional needs as well as opportunities for collaboration between advocates and policymakers. By addressing gaps in policy knowledge and counselor training, the Handbook discusses both the diversity of prominent issues and the universality of its major objectives. Topics featured in this handbook include: The use of scoping reviews to document and synthesize current practices in school based counseling; Contemporary public policy on school based counseling in Latin America; Policy capacity building and school based counseling in Eastern Southern Africa; Public policy, policy research and school counseling in Middle Eastern countries; Policy and policy research on school based counseling in the United Kingdom; Policy research on school based counseling in the United States. The International Handbook for Policy Research in School Based Counseling is a must have resource for researchers, graduate students, clinicians and related professionals and practitioners in child and school psychology, educational policy and politics, social work, psychotherapy and counseling as well as related disciplines.

College Admission Robin Mamlet, Christine VanDeVelde, 2011-08-30 College Admission is the ultimate user's manual and go to guide for any student or family approaching the college application process. Featuring the wise counsel of more than 50 deans of admission, no other guide has such thorough, expert, compassionate and professional advice. Let's be honest: applying to college can be stressful for students and parents. But here's the good news: you can get in. Robin Mamlet has been dean of admission at three of America's most selective colleges and journalist and parent. Christine VanDeVelde has been through the process first hand. With this book, you will feel like you have both a dean of admission and a parent who has been there at your side. Inside this book, you'll find clear, comprehensive and expert answers to all your questions along the way to an acceptance letter: The role of extracurricular activities; What it means to find a college that's the right fit; What's more important: high grades or tough courses; What role does testing play; The best candidates for early admission; When help from parents is too much help; Advice for athletes, artists, international students and those with learning differences; How wait lists work; Applying for financial aid. This will be your definitive resource during the sophomore, junior and senior years of high school.

Acing Admissions Kavita Mehta, Kimberly Wright Dixit, 2020-03-28 Acing Admissions is the only guide you need to help navigate the US undergraduate studies application process. Written with the international student in mind, Acing Admissions outlines frameworks for developing a college list, provides a step by step guide to submitting your application and describes the range of financial aid options available to international students. The book also gives detailed timelines with checkpoints for students who want to start planning as early as 8th grade. Practical advice is conveyed through anecdotes and case studies featuring real applicant stories based on the authors' years of experience.
