Relief and Rehabilitation for a Post-war World Samantha K. Knapton, Katherine Rossy, 2023-11-16 One of the world's first truly international humanitarian organisations the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration UNRRA was championed as a beacon of postwar philanthropy that sought to rehabilitate as well as provide relief This edited volume offers the first comprehensive study of the UNRRA and seeks to identify the key successes limitations and enduring challenges it faced in the postwar period Tracing the rehabilitation of displaced children in the camps of Germany and Austria to mountainous Greek villages without access to food or medical supplies and refugees in postwar China it will assess the immediate impact of UNRRA rehabilitation policy on postwar reconstruction international development and broader humanitarian processes Through these international case studies it will explore the ways in which a fundamental inability to define rehabilitation made it seemingly impossible to meet its objectives As a predecessor to modern specialised agencies such as UNESCO WHO and UNICEF studying the UNRRA is crucial for our understanding of the history of the United Nations the circumstances that shaped its future policies and the foundations of modern humanitarianism

Making Autism a Gift Robert E. Cimeria, 2007-01-11 Despite new research and increased public awareness autism is still looked at in a negative light Most books on the subject perpetuate this notion by saying that autism is bad or needs to be overcome rather than highlighting the positive for instance many people with autism graduate from college attain exciting careers and lead happy fulfilling lives Making Autism a Gift emphasizes these positive realities and tears down the wall of isolation associated with this disorder With information from hundreds of up to date sources this practical book looks at the effects of autism on the individual and provides strategies parents can use to help their autistic children at home and beyond
