Glory be to God: I can't do it with out Him!

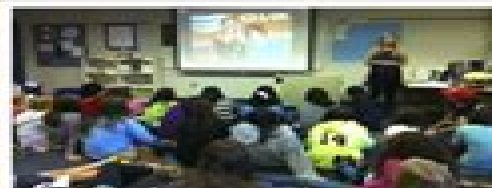

SPEAKING AT STUDENT VENTURE: TIMBER CREEK HIGH SCHOOL

Speaking at the Student Venture meeting at Timber Creek High School was a really neat experience God provided for me. It was my first time sharing the gospel with American high schoolers. In the Philippines the blonde hair and white skin grabs the kids attention immediately but I wasn't sure what was going to be the best way to approach American teens... how to keep their attention and have them hear God's message. But, I put my faith in the Holy Spirit and once again, God pulled through. I know had I walked out in front of the high school students on my own merit I would have fumbled... but with the Holy Spirit, God gave me the words and means to keep the students attention! Not only that but He had them hear His message. These talks aren't about me, I don't really even matter. All that matters is that I trust and invite the Holy Spirit to do the talk for me. I'd love to say I am a fine speaker but the truth is, I'm not. There is nothing special about me except that I invite the Holy spirit in and then trust Him. I pray today we all have the Holy Spirit dwelling inside us and daily call upon Him!

After sharing the good news with some of the Timber Creek High School students.

Speaking with students...

Back to the Philippines Jan 2012!

I will be in the Philippines January 14-29th, please pray the hearts of the Filipinos are open!

Inscribing Death Jessey J. C. Choo, 2022-07-31 This nuanced study traces how Chinese came to view death as an opportunity to fashion and convey social identities and memories during the medieval period 200 1000 and the Tang dynasty 618 907 specifically As Chinese society became increasingly multicultural and multireligious to achieve these aims people selectively adopted portrayed and interpreted various acts of remembrance Included in these were new and evolving burial mourning and commemorative practices joint burials of spouses extended family members and coreligionists relocation and reburial of bodies posthumous marriage and divorce interment of a summoned soul in the absence of a body and many changes to the classical mourning and commemorative rites that became the norm during the period Individuals independently constructed the socio religious meanings of a particular death and the handling of corpses by engaging in and reviewing acts of remembrance Drawing on a variety of sources including hundreds of newly excavated entombed epitaph inscriptions Inscribing Death illuminates the process through which the living and the dead negotiated this multiplicity of meanings and how they shaped their memories and identities both as individuals and as part of collectives In particular it details the growing emphasis on remembrance as an expression of filial piety and the grave as a focal point of ancestral sacrifice The work also identifies different modes of construction and representation of the self in life and death deepening our understanding of ancestral worship and its changing modus operandi and continuous shaping influence on the most intimate human relationships thus challenging the current monolithic representation of ancestral worship as an extension of families rather than individuals in medieval China

Philippians George H. Guthrie, 2025-03-25 Designed for the pastor and Bible teacher the Zondervan Exegetical Commentary on the New Testament features today's top New Testament scholars and brings together commentary features rarely gathered together in one volume With careful analysis and interpretation of the Greek text the authors trace the flow of argument in each New Testament book giving readers the tools they need to properly understand and communicate the meaning of the text Commentary on each passage follows a clear structure to help readers grasp the flow and meaning of the text Literary Context A brief discussion of how the passage functions in the broader literary context of the book Main Idea A one or two sentence statement of the big idea or central thrust of the passage Translation and Graphical Layout Presents each commentator's translation of the Greek text in a graphical layout to help the reader visualize and thus better understand the flow of thought within the text Structure Describes the flow of thought in the passage and explains how certain interpretive decisions regarding the relationship of the clauses were made in the passage Exegetical Outline The overall structure of the passage is described in a detailed exegetical outline This will be particularly helpful for those who are looking for a way to concisely explain the flow of thought in the passage in a teaching or preaching setting Explanation of the Text Commentators examine words and images grammatical details relevant Old Testament and Jewish background to a particular concept historical and cultural context important text critical issues and various interpretive issues that surface Theology in Application The theological message of the passage is summarized The author discusses the theology of the text in terms of its place within the book and in a broader biblical theological context Finally each commentator provides some suggestions on what the message of the passage is for the church today The Zondervan Exegetical Commentary on the New Testament series is the go to resource for pastors and Bible teachers looking for deep but accessible study that equips them to connect the needs of Christians today with the biblical text

To the Letter Simon Garfield, 2013-11-14 The New York Times bestselling author of Just My Type and On the Map offers an ode to letter writing and its possible salvation in the digital age Few things are as exciting and potentially life changing as discovering an old letter And while etiquette books still extol the practice letter writing seems to be disappearing amid a flurry of e-mails texting and tweeting The recent decline in letter writing marks a cultural shift so vast that in the future historians may divide time not between BC and AD but between the eras when people wrote letters and when they did not So New York Times bestselling author Simon Garfield asks Can anything be done to revive a practice that has dictated and tracked the progress of civilization for more than five hundred years In To the Letter Garfield traces the fascinating history of letter writing from the love letter and the business letter to the chain letter and the letter of recommendation He provides a tender critique of early letter writing manuals and analyzes celebrated correspondence from Erasmus to Princess Diana He also considers the role that letters have played as a literary device from Shakespeare to the epistolary novel all the rage in the eighteenth century and alive and well today with bestsellers like The Guernsey Literary and Potato Peel Pie Society At a time when the decline of letter writing appears to be irreversible Garfield is the perfect candidate to inspire bibliophiles to put pen to paper and create a form of expression emotion and tactile delight we may clasp to our heart The Prayer book interleaved with historical illustrations and explanatory notes arranged parallel to the text, by W.M. Campion and W.J. Beamont William Magan Campion,1880
