Preaching a Dual Identity Nicholas Must, 2017-08-21 In Preaching a Dual Identity Nicholas Must examines seventeenth century Huguenot sermons to study the development of French Reformed confessional identity under the Edict of Nantes Of key concern is how a Huguenot hybrid identity was formulated by balancing a strong sense of religious particularism with an enthusiastic political loyalism Must argues that sermons were an integral part of asserting this unique confessional position in both their preached and printed forms To demonstrate this Must explores a variety of sermon themes to access the range of images and arguments that preachers employed to articulate a particular vision of their community as a religious minority in France Preaching and Narrative in Piers Plowman Alastair Bennett,2024-01-11 The book describes the process by which the narratives of Piers Plowman are composed and how they mediate and reconfigure their listeners experiences

Hoke,2024-09-26 Pastors want to work hard to provide for their families be radically generous and build a legacy of ministry that they can be proud of In the modern ministry vocation the only way to do this is to expand vocational options and earn additional income outside of the church The problem is that pastors have only ever worked in churches and have no idea how to message their valuable skills in a way that makes sense to hiring managers in the open marketplace As a result they are paralyzed and frustrated because they know that they could break into the workforce earn more money and meet community members outside the church but don't know where to start on the job hunt Eric Hoke understands how difficult it is to change industries and move from being a pastor to a marketplace professional because he did it in New York City where he spent ten years living and ministering as a church planter while also working in Manhattan for profits Hoke has helped thousands of others to do the same through a proven five step process that helps pastors break into the marketplace and build a ministry of sustainability The Oxford Handbook of Early Evangelicalism Jonathan Yeager,2022 Contexts Churches and movements The culture of evangelicalism Personalities

In Your Eyes I See My Words Pope Francis,2020-10-27 In Your Eyes I See My Words Volume 3 brings together the homilies and speeches of Archbishop Cardinal Jorge Mario Bergoglio from 2009 through his election as Pope Francis on March 13 2013 These writings provide an intimate glimpse into the theological philosophical scientific and cultural educational currents that forged the steady loving and nurturing leadership style with which Bergoglio guided the Church in Buenos Aires That style has now done the same for the Church from Rome a Church rocked by financial and moral scandals and a world shaken by the first global pandemic in a century These writings were kneaded a word he uses when talking about the work of molding the souls and character of youth and seminarians in the relationships he formed in his bus rides to work and in his intense contact with all segments of the population Because of that careful and prayerful process of kneading they have found their full development in Bergoglio's writing as Pope Francis especially in Evangelii gaudium November 2013 Gaudete et exsultate On the call to sanctity March 2018 and his encyclical Laudato si May 2015 In this final volume of Bergoglio's homilies and papers we meet European theologians and thinkers such as Hans Urs von Balthasar Henri de Lubac and Bergoglio's Uruguayan philosopher and friend Methol Ferr the literary figure Miguel ngel Asturias and Enrique Santos Disc polo a singer and composer of tangos that decry corruption In a prophetic conclusion the last homily of this volume is an outline of the roadmap Pope Francis has followed throughout his papacy one defined by ongoing love and care for God's people and that seeks to spread God's merciful anointing to those living on the margins of life
