MY AUTOBIOGRAPHY

I am Alea Mae D. Benitez, I was born on May 7, 2000 in Pasay City, Philippines. We are two siblings in the family, I am the second child. My mother's name is Divina D. Benitez from Sorsogon, Bicol. My father's name is Nelson D. Benitez. And he is from Camarines Sur, Bicol.

During weekends, we usually spend our days in the family. We always go to church. We helped each other in our activities. My family was a happy and loving family. I had a happy childhood living with my parents and my siblings. I completed my elementary education at Don Carlos Velez Elementary School. During my junior high school, I completed my junior high school at President Corazon Aquino National High School and I usually spend my time with my friends. Since the lockdown, I have a daily routine with my friend for a Google meet until dawn, and we do various things when we do, such as talk about what is going on in our lives and watch movies that have been shown several times. We have been watched pitch perfect all seasons. I finished it several times. When I am not with them, I watch shows like Mr. Queen and Ghost Doctor. And I am a senior at Pasay City South High School, I work hard at everything I can to get into a good university where I can go to college.

Memoir - Cornell University Agricultural Experiment Station Cornell University. Agricultural Experiment Station,1921 Memoir ,1994 Literacy Autobiographies from the Global South Shizhou Yang,2022-12-30 Drawing on autoethnographic research on literacy autobiographies from a Chinese EFL writing context this book provides unique insights into literacy voice translanguaging and critical pedagogy from a Global South perspective The book presents literacy autobiographies as a cultural tool for analyzing and refashioning learners and teachers sense of self in ever expanding dialogical spaces In addition to highlighting teachers own stories around autoethnographies and translanguaging it showcases literacy autobiographies from Chinese students themselves The book theorizes the Global South as an ontological positioning that challenges colonial mindsets and practices concerning literacy language learning and narratives It argues that literacy autobiographies from a Global South perspective can be reimagined as critical pedagogy for EFL writing teaching and learning as well as teacher development Validating and expanding student voices by presenting these literacy autobiographies this book will be of great interest to researchers and students in the fields of TESOL applied linguistics English language teaching second language writing and literacy studies Autobiography of the First Forty-one Years of the Life of Sylvanus Cobb, D.D. Sylvanus Cobb,1867 Being White Karyn D. McKinney,2013-04-15 Karyn McKinney uses written autobiographies solicited from young white people to empirically analyze the contours of the white experience in U S society This text offers a unique view of whiteness based on the rich data provided by whites themselves writing about what it means to be white Memoir - Geological Survey of Canada ,1910 Memoir Cornell University. Agricultural Experiment Station,1920 Interplay of Creativity and Giftedness in Science Melissa K. Demetrikopoulos,John L. Pecore,2015-12-17 This book explores education for juvenile offenders in relation to Passages Academy which is both similar to and representative of many school programs in juvenile correctional facilities Examining the mission and population of this school contributes to an understanding of the ways in which the teachers think about and ultimately act with respect to their detained juveniles students and particularly illustrates how the tension between punishment and rehabilitation is played out in school policies and design By calling attention to the decisions that surround juvenile detention education the extant research concentrates on three main areas first the social political and pedagogical forces that determine who enters the juvenile justice systems second how these court involved youths are educated while they are in the system and third the practical problems and the social justice issues youths encountered when transitioning back to their community schools I Hope I Don t See You Tomorrow is both heartwarming and heartbreaking its vast empathy for the students that L A Gabay teaches is edifying while its unsparing examination of the forces that push youth into detention is soul shearing Gabay is at once Tocqueville and Kozol he brilliantly guides us through the educational territory that is foreign to most of us even as he paints a searing portrait of teachers who shape lesson plans for students who must learn under impossible conditions Gabay's haunting and eloquent missive from the front lines of pain and possibility couldn't be more timely as the nation's first black president seeks to lessen the stigma of nonviolent ex-offenders in our society Gabay's book confronts the criminal justice system at its institutional roots in the economic misery and racial strife of schooling that compounds the suffering of poor youth as they are contained by a state that often only pays attention to them when they are in trouble Gabay opens eyes and vexes minds with this stirring and sober account of what it means to teach those whom society has deemed utterly expendable Michael Eric Dyson author of The Black Presidency Barack Obama and the Politics of Race in America As a beneficiary of Lee Gabay and his colleague's patience discipline and compassionate teaching at the school this timely book beautifully decrypts the pedagogical framework within the juvenile justice system As America comes to term with its zeal for incarceration policymakers educators government officials parents and advocates should take advantage of this carefully written book and use it as reflection and pause as we prepare our young court involved students towards adulthood Jim St Germain Advisory counsel on President Obama's Taskforce on Police Community Relations and Mayor Bloomberg's Close to Home initiative More Than a Memoir NELSON J.
