Electing members to your Pastor Search Committee is an extremely important decision for any church. Your Pastor Search Committee will shape the future of your church and its Kingdom-impact as they seek the next pastor God is calling to lead your congregation.

Because serving on a Pastor Search Committee is such a significant contribution to the future of your church, it's necessary that the members be completely dedicated to their role on the committee. Their earnest commitment to prayerfully and steadfastly seeking the best candidate for your church staff is vital.

Many Pastor Search Committees require their members to sign an agreement or a covenant that fleshes out the specifics of their commitment. But it can be difficult to discern everything that should be included in such an agreement.

Our goal at Vanderbloemen Search Group is to equip churches to find the best leaders possible. We're delighted to provide free resources to assist you in your pastor search, and if we can further help you in your pastor search, let.us@know.com.

Douglas Weaver, 2008 When John Smyth organized the first Baptist church he wanted to establish the New Testament church believer's baptism was the missing link Baptists of subsequent eras often continued the search to embody New Testament Christianity Unique to surveys of Baptist life Doug Weaver highlights this restorationist theme as a way to understand Baptist identity Weaver does not force the theme but the search is ever present It is found in the insistence upon believer's baptism but also in examples like the Sabbath worship of Seventh Day Baptists the nine rites of colonial Separate Baptists the women preachers of Free Will Baptists the trail of blood of Landmarkism the social gospel of Walter Rauschenbusch the fundamentals of fundamentalism and the ministry of the European pioneer Johann Oncken Like other recent Baptist studies Weaver describes Baptist diversity Still he highlights the persistent commitment of most Baptists to an informal constellation of Baptist distinctives Alongside the quest for the New Testament church and congregational community Weaver especially highlights the Baptist commitment to religious liberty and the individual conscience This emphasis while later reinforced by

Enlightenment ideals could already be found in the biblicist piety of the earliest Baptists who insisted that individual believers must have the right to choose their religious beliefs because they would stand alone before God at the final judgment Both chronological and thematic this book addresses such themes as the role of women the social gospel ecumenism charismatic influences and theological emphases in Baptist life The book s focus is America but it also includes helpful introductory chapters on early English Baptists and international Baptists     The Son of My Father: The Memoir of a Preaching Minister/Educator John W Waters, PhD.,2023-11-22 About the Book As a sickly child John W Waters was told he would not live to five years old His family large and dysfunctional was never any help especially his father who said John would never amount to much even if he did live to see adulthood At three John s love of reading took over and with each year that passed he defied all the odds not only living long enough to see himself become an adult but earning top grades and graduating at the top of his class in high school His father never attended his commencement As his passion for religion and education grew John earned his PhD in the Hebrew Bible and taught at several higher education institutions ending his academic career as a chairperson of the Biblical Studies Department at the ITC in Atlanta John s passion for the Lord is what drove him to begin a new career in ministry beginning as a youth minister and moving up through the ranks until he retired as a senior minister emeritus at the Greater Solid Rock Baptist Church Receiving many honors and awards throughout his life for his community and religious service John succeeded in a world where most thought he would fail and now writes his inspiring journey in this one of a kind memoir for those who were always told they would never succeed For those who see themselves as unworthy In the eyes of God you are and with hard work determination and a strong faith your journey can be just as fruitful About the Author John W Waters PhD enjoys reading listening to good music cooking and writing poetry After living for more than eight decades he no longer actively engages in civic and community activities as he had been
