The Mosaic of Atonement Joshua M. McNall, 2019-08-27 The Mosaic of Atonement offers a fresh and integrated approach to historic models of atonement While modern treatments of the doctrine have tended toward either a defensive hierarchy in which one model is singled out as most important or a disconnected plurality in which multiple images are affirmed but with no order of arrangement this book argues for a reintegration of four famous pieces of atonement doctrine through the governing image of Christ shaped mosaic Unlike a photograph in which tiny pixels present a seamless blending of color and shape a mosaic allows each piece to retain its recognizable particularity while also integrating them in the service of a single larger image If one stands close one can identify individual squares of glass or tile that compose the greater picture And if one steps back there is the larger picture to be admired Yet in the great mosaics of age old Christian churches the goal is not for viewers to construct the image as in a puzzle but to appreciate it So too with this mosaic of atonement doctrine While no one model is set above or against the others the book notes particular ways in which the pieces the feet heart head and hands mutually support one another to form a more holistic vision of Christ s work This is my body Jesus said to his followers and by reintegrating these oft dismembered aspects of atonement we will note fresh ways in which it was given for us

Beyond Every Child Matters Catherine Simon, 2016-12-01 The United Kingdom's Conservative Liberal Democrat coalition government 2010-15 was responsible for some of the most radical changes to education policy for decades Beyond Every Child Matters provides a critical overview of developments in education and social welfare policy in the years following the 2010 general election It explores the conceptual background of a Big Society used to frame Coalition policy and shows how the underlying spectre of neoliberalism both creates issues for policy attention and undermines ensuing policy solutions This book charts those changes which have impacted upon education and schooling in England and Wales and is divided into two parts Part I analyses Conservative philosophical thought and policy discussions that underpin the social welfare and education policies introduced under the Conservative led coalition government of 2010-15 and the subsequent Conservative administration since 2015 Part II looks at these policies in detail and concludes with a discussion of possible alternative policy approaches Set against a backdrop of unprecedented economic crisis and austerity Beyond Every Child Matters will be of interest to students of education and welfare policy academics and researchers

Digital Heritage Reconstruction Using Super-resolution and Inpainting Milind G. Padalkar, Manjunath V. Joshi, 2016-12-12 Heritage sites across the world have witnessed a number of natural calamities sabotage and damage from visitors resulting in their present ruined condition Many sites are now restricted to reduce the risk of further damage Yet these masterpieces are significant cultural icons and critical markers of past civilizations that future generations need to see A digitally reconstructed heritage site could diminish further harm by using immersive navigation or walkthrough systems for virtual environments An exciting key element for the viewer is observing fine details of the historic work and viewing monuments in their undamaged form This book presents image super resolution methods and techniques for automatically detecting and inpainting damaged regions in heritage monuments in order to provide an enhanced visual experience The book presents techniques to obtain higher resolution photographs of the digitally reconstructed monuments and the resulting images can serve as input to immersive walkthrough systems It begins with the discussion of two novel techniques for image super resolution and an approach for inpainting a user supplied region in the given image followed by a technique to simultaneously perform super resolution and inpainting of given missing regions It then introduces a method for automatically detecting and repairing the damage to dominant facial regions in statues followed by a few approaches for automatic crack repair in images of heritage scenes This book is a giant step toward ensuring that the iconic sites of our past are always available and will never be truly lost Debugging Game History Henry Lowood, Raiford Guins, 2024-02-06 Essays discuss the terminology etymology and history of key terms offering a foundation for critical historical studies of games Even as the field of game studies has flourished critical historical studies of games have lagged behind other areas of research Histories have generally been fact by fact chronicles fundamental terms of game design and development technology and play have rarely been examined in the context of their historical etymological and conceptual underpinnings This volume attempts to debug the flawed historiography of video games It offers original essays on key concepts in game studies arranged as in a lexicon from Amusement Arcade to Embodiment and Game Art to Simulation and World Building Written by scholars and practitioners from a variety of disciplines including game development curatorship media archaeology cultural studies and technology studies the essays offer a series of distinctive critical takes on historical topics The majority of essays look at game history from the outside in some take deep dives into the histories of play and simulation to provide context for the development of electronic and digital games others take on such technological components of games as code and audio Not all essays are history or historical etymology there is an analysis of game design and a discussion of intellectual property but they nonetheless raise questions for historians to consider Taken together the essays offer a foundation for the emerging study of game history Contributors Marcelo Aranda Brooke Belisle Caetlin Benson Allott Stephanie Boluk Jennifer deWinter J P Dyson Kate Edwards Mary Flanagan Jacob Gaboury William Gibbons Raiford Guins Erkki Huhtamo Don Ihde Jon Ippolito Katherine Isbister Mikael Jakobsson Steven E Jones Jesper Juul Eric Kaltman Matthew G Kirschenbaum Carly A Kocurek Peter Krapp Patrick LeMieux Henry Lowood Esther MacCallum Stewart Ken S McAllister Nick Monfort David Myers James Newman Jenna Ng Michael Nitsche Laine Nooney Hector Postigo Jas Purewal Rene H Reynolds Judd Ethan Ruggill Marie Laure Ryan Katie Salen Tekinba Anastasia Salter Mark Sample Bobby Schweizer John Sharp Miguel Sicart Rebecca Elisabeth Skinner Melanie Swalwell David Thomas Samuel Tobin Emma Witkowski Mark J P Wolf HC 287 - Government Motoring Agencies - the User Perspective Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Transport Committee, 2014-10-07 The Government's motoring agencies are undergoing reorganisation and are introducing digital services both changes have potential to bring welcome improvements The Government has a mixed approach to organisational change in the agencies with different emphasis on efficiency savings restructuring and private sector involvement across the agencies It needs to do more to explain the future direction for all the motoring agencies and how it will create a more unified service The agencies could do more to recognise and respond to the needs of business users There are a number of specific areas that require action by the Government and its motoring agencies the driver Certificate of Professional Competence may not be delivering all the benefits expected of it and the Government should negotiate changes at a European level the agencies need to have effective assisted digital strategies in
