Theology of James Nayler Stuart Masters,2021-07-19 During the 1650s James Nayler was one of the most important leaders of the emerging Quaker movement in England and arguably its most effective preacher and writer However his legacy has been dominated by events that took place in the summer and autumn of 1656 leading to a conviction for blasphemy brutal public punishment and imprisonment Official histories of Quaker beginnings portrayed him as a gifted but flawed character who brought the Quaker movement into disrepute and prompted a concern for corporate order Scholarship during the past century has begun to question this received position However a continued preoccupation with his fall has tended to overshadow interpretations of his writings In this volume Stuart Masters seeks to identify a number of important theological themes visible within Nayler's works and to locate them within their radical religious context He argues that a powerful Christological vision at the heart of Nayler's religious thought engendered a practical theology with radical political economic and ecological implications Adult Bible Studies Fall 2025 Teacher/Commentary Kit Stan

Studies on First Clement William Wrede, 2023-05-25. Inspired by the advice of his former teacher and mentor Adolf von Harnack, William Wrede committed himself to the task of writing a dissertation on 1 Clement, which was originally published under the title Untersuchungen zum 1. Clemensbrief and has now been published here in English translation for the first time under the title Studies on 1 Clement. In this volume, Wrede investigates the ecclesiastical structure of the early church as well as the significance and function of the Old Testament in 1 Clement. Though overshadowed by his later work The Messianic Secret, Wrede's work on 1 Clement served as a tempered and solid basis for later investigations of the letter, even when those investigations part ways with Wrede's conclusions. Ancestor Christology Cletus Chukwuemeka

Nwaogwugwu, 2011-01-07. The study of the application of the title ancestor to Christ permits the author to delve into the Christological reflection in Africa today through one of the principal ways at play here: the inculturation of the faith, which cannot be fully achieved without a process of theological assimilation of the fundamental parameters in the African life. The thesis therefore is not only limited to a mere description of the contemporary panorama in that respect but attempts to offer a theological evaluation of the real expressive capacity of the title as it has been proposed. The criterion used is therefore double. In the first place, the thesis tried to show that the human and the divine natures of Jesus Christ can be maintained in such a way that there is no rupture with the great tradition of the Christological councils. In the second place, if it is capable of responding to demands of Christology from above and from below. In all this, however, the horizon of the debate is not occidental exegetical investigation, well known by the author, but from the theological ambient of the sub-Saharan world. The conclusion is positive, pondering the terms involved. The work can be of great use in the christological endeavors of contemporary Africa as well for those who desire to delve into it Don Alfonso Carrasco Rouco director of the thesis and now Bishop of the Diocese of Lugo Spain The work of Don Cletus Chukwuemeka contains a clear description of what we may call African traditional religiosity as well as the theological efforts to inject Christianity into this cultural and religious tradition The central point of these efforts revolves around the understanding of Christ The most original aspect of this work is in the critical recourse to the figure of the ancestor or proto ancestor to present the identity of Christ in a way that is faithful to the Church tradition and at the same time significant for the religious and cultural tradition of Africa Dr Don Gerardo del Pozo Abejn Censor of the thesis
