ECEL 2020 19th European Conference on e-Learning Prof. Dr.-Ing. Carsten Busc., Prof. Dr. Tilo Wendler, Martin Steinicke, 2020-10-29 Assessing Academic Literacy in a Multilingual Society Albert Weideman, John Read, Theo du Plessis, 2020-11-02 South African universities face major challenges in meeting the needs of their students in the area of academic language and literacy The dominant medium of instruction in the universities is English and to a much lesser extent Afrikaans but only a minority of the national population are native speakers of these languages Nine other languages can be media of instruction in schools which makes the transition to tertiary education difficult enough in itself for students from these schools The focus of this book is on procedures for assessing the academic language and literacy levels and needs of students not in order to exclude students from higher education but rather to identify those who would benefit from further development of their ability in order to undertake their degree studies successfully The volume also aims to bring the innovative solutions designed by South African educators to a wider international audience A Theory of Applied Linguistics Albert Weideman, 2024-08-21 This book adopts as conceptual focus the technical mode of experience exploring this characteristic mode of design as the angle from which the discipline of applied linguistics takes its cue What makes applied linguistic concept formation possible A number of elementary concepts and ideas are so basic to the discipline that they can neither be ignored nor avoided These primitives are identified by examining the connections among the technical and other modalities such as the spatial the physical the social economic aesthetic juridical and the ethical A theory of applied linguistics must be robust enough to do justice to different modernist and postmodernist paradigms operating in the discipline systematically identifying and assessing their strengths and blind spots The book offers a response to the question of the usefulness of theory The principles of design revealed in the theoretical analysis are given shape in developing imaginative language interventions to solve vexing language problems not for the sake of theory but for the benefit of those affected The book is intended for use both as a reference and as a comprehensive unifying perspective of what the field is by scholars in applied linguistics and related fields TESOL ESL ESP EAP SLA studies language assessment and testing language policy development by postgraduate students or those who teach or study applied linguistics The Statesman's Yearbook 2016 Nick Heath-Brown, 2017-02-07 Now in its 152nd edition The Statesman's Yearbook continues to be the reference work of choice for accurate and reliable information on every country in the world Covering political economic social and cultural aspects the Yearbook is also available online for subscribing institutions www.statesmansyearbook.com Recruiting Immigrant Workers: Canada 2019 OECD, 2019-08-13 Canada has not only the largest in terms of numbers but also the most elaborate and longest standing skilled labour migration system in the OECD Largely as a result of many decades of managed labour migration more than one in five people in Canada is foreign born one of the highest shares in the OECD 60% of Canada's foreign born population are highly educated the highest share OECD wide New Practices of Comparison,

Quantification and Expertise in Education Christina Elde Mølstad, Daniel Pettersson, 2019-03-29 New Practices of Comparison Quantification and Expertise in Education discusses contemporary trends and activities related to comparisons and quantifications It aims to help scholars to conduct empirically based research on how comparisons and quantifications are instituted in practice at different levels in the educational system The book furthers discussions on policy by looking at the kinds of activities that comparisons and quantifications lead to at an international regional and national level Most of the book s chapters are based on empirical research conducted in different research projects The book thus brings all these projects together and discusses them as activities promoted by the reasoning of comparisons and quantifications New Practices of Comparison Quantification and Expertise in Education will be of great interest to academics researchers and post graduate students in the fields of comparative education curriculum research and policy studies It will also appeal to those in the fields of teacher education including student teachers

What Constitutes an Effective and Efficient Package of Services for the Prevention Diagnosis Treatment and Care of Tuberculosis Among Refugees and Migrants in the WHO

European Region? Who Regional Office for Europe, 2018-06-28 The WHO European Region has faced high rates of external and internal migration in recent years with concerns that this is contributing to the burden of tuberculosis TB multidrug resistant TB MDR TB and TB HIV coinfection in some countries This report examines evidence of effective and efficient service packages for the prevention diagnosis and treatment of TB to inform strategies to address the TB burden in refugee and migrant populations Significant regional variations were identified in both migration levels and TB burden in refugees and migrants as well as in approaches to TB control with low quality of evidence in many cases While it is unlikely that a single strategy package will be effective for all situations the evidence highlights some common approaches that could guide policy making and service development TB elimination targets for the Region will not be met unless inequalities in access to screening and treatment for migrants are addressed alongside efforts to tackle TB globally
