Shipwreck and Island Motifs in Literature and the Arts ,2015-05-19 The motifs of island and shipwreck have been present in literature and the arts from ancient times Whether they occur as plot elements as part of literary or film imagery as symbols in paintings as leitmotifs in songs or as concepts in philosophical theories both have always been a source of fascination to authors artists and scholars In Shipwreck and Island Motifs in Literature and the Arts Brigitte Le Juez and Olga Springer have gathered essays that explore shipwreck and island figures in texts as historically culturally and artistically diverse as Walter Scott s The Lord of the Isles Cristina Fern ndez Cubas The Lighthouse reality TV series Treasure Island pop songs of the BBC Radio programme Desert Island Discs or The Otolith Group s essay film Hydra Decapita

The Open Shelf ,1919 Genres and Provenance in the Comedy of W.S. Gilbert Richard Moore,2019-10-28 In The Progress of Fun W S Gilbert was considered not as a classic Victorian but as part of an on going comedic continuum stretching from Aristophanes to Joe Orton and beyond Pipes and Tabors continues the story covering the comedic experience differently by reference to genres Here treated in relation to a line of significant others we discover how Gilbert responded to areas such as the Pastoral the Irish drama nautical scenarios melodrama sensation theatre the nonsensemode pantomime spectaculars fairy plays and classical farce Also included is a wider look at his relation to various European musical forms and for instance to the English line of wit and the Elizabethan pamphleteers To consider a writer not so much by a study of individual works as by threads of linking generic modes tells us a great deal about cultural interconnections and the richly textured nature of theatrical experience Pipes and Tabors offers a tapestry of overlapping genres and treatments showing not just the design of the finished products but the shreds and patches which form the underside of the weave According to Dorothy L Sayers life itself offers us the apparent loose ends of a design which will only be revealed from the front after death In terms of Gilbertian comedy we are privileged to be able to track both the effort of the weave and the skill of the finished product On the way we will also discover some new links and sub text implications about other 19th century denigrated groups which were buried from sight for too long

A Question of Mercy David Rabe,2007-12-01 The Tony Award winning playwright of Hurlyburly confronts the timely topic of assisted suicide an affirmation of dignity that rings clear and true Variety David Rabe is one of America s finest dramatists In A Question of Mercy he explores the controversial and emotional issue of euthanasia delving deep into the ties that bind friends and lovers Thomas and Anthony are lovers struggling with Anthony s final exhausting battle with AIDS Joined by their friend Susanah and a retired doctor whose help Thomas has requested they fashion a heartbreaking friendship as they work through the stages of a plan to relieve Anthony of his illness and his life Rabe creates a passionate depiction of four people confronted with the reality of a loved one s fight with death and a compelling dramatic event that poses the question What would you do A moving and enlightening experience Backstage Completely gripping This life and death tale questions the moral implications involved with assisted suicide and the honor behind the action A serious and provocative night at the theatre Theasy Praise for David Rabe Few contemporary dramatists have dealt with violence physical and psychological more impressively than Rabe Kirkus Reviews A remarkable storyteller Chicago Tribune Rabe s mastery of dialogue is the equal of Pinter and Mamet put together full of a measured Mafia formality played against Jacobean terrors blood lust horror and revenge raised to an unlikely poetry dazed by equally unlikely insights The Boston Globe Nebraska History Addison Erwin Sheldon,James Lee Sellers,James C. Olson,2013 Los Angeles Magazine ,2003-11 Los Angeles magazine is a regional magazine of national stature Our combination of award winning feature writing investigative reporting service journalism and design covers the people lifestyle culture entertainment fashion art and architecture and news that define Southern California Started in the spring of 1961 Los Angeles magazine has been addressing the needs and interests of our region for 48 years The magazine continues to be the definitive resource for an affluent population that is intensely interested in a lifestyle that is uniquely Southern Californian Church-school Administration Edmund Morris Fergusson,1922 From Jack Johnson to Lebron James Chris Lamb,2016 The campaign for racial equality in sports has both reflected and affected the campaign for racial equality in the United States Some of the most significant and publicized stories in this campaign in the twentieth century have happened in sports including of course Jackie Robinson in baseball Jesse Owens Tommie Smith and John Carlos in track Arthur Ashe in tennis and Jack Johnson Joe Louis and Muhammad Ali in boxing Long after the full integration of college and professional athletics race continues to play a major role in sports Not long ago sportswriters and sportscasters ignored racial issues They now contribute to the public s evolving racial attitudes on issues both on and off the field ranging from integration to self determination to masculinity From Jack Johnson to LeBron James examines the intersection of sports race and the media in the twentieth century and beyond The essays are linked by a number of questions including How did the black and white media differ in content and context in their reporting of these stories How did the media acknowledge race in their stories Did the media recognize these stories as historically significant Considering how media coverage has evolved over the years the essays begin with the racially charged reporting of Jack Johnson s reign as heavyweight champion and carry up to the present covering the media narratives surrounding the Michael Vick dogfighting case in a supposedly post racial era and the media s handling of LeBron James s announcement to leave Cleveland for Miami Normal Instructor and Primary Plans ,1920 The Bicentennial of the United States of America American Revolution Bicentennial Administration,1977 Daily Graphic Ransford Tetteh,2010-03-12 How Secular Is Art? Tapati Guha-Thakurta,Vazira Zamindar,2024-05-31 As an invitation to interrogate the secular modality of art the book unsettles both the categories of art and secular in their theoretical and historical implications It questions the temporal spatial and cultural binaries between the sacred and the secular that have shaped art historical scholarship as well as artistic practice Thinking from the south all the essays here are anchored in a conception of a region one fissured by histories of partition state formations and religious nationalisms but still offering a collective site from which to speak to the disciplines of art and the knowledge worlds in which they are embedded The book asks How do we complicate the religious designations of pre modern art and architecture and the new forms of their resurgence in contemporary iconographies and monuments How do we re conceptualize the public and the political as fiery contestations and new curatorial practices reconfigure the meaning of art in the proliferating spaces of museums galleries biennales and festivals How do we understand South Asian art s deep entanglements with the politics of the present
