Treasuring Algonquin

Gaye Clemson, 2007-02-19 Among the many who treasure Algonquin Park in Ontario Canada are a small group of leasehold residents who have occupied small corners of the Park since the earliest days of the 20th century It is a book about their heritage the depth and breadth of their roots in the community their traditions and experiences living and settling in the forest 35 miles from the closest town their passion for Algonquin and its tradition of multiple use their community and its activities and their contributions both large and small to the environment and to quality Park experiences for all who visit Treasuring Algonquin is all about that leasehold community of 300 leaseholds spread across 19 lakes paralleling for the most part the old railway right of way whose forebears were invited by the Ontario Government to establish cottages in the Park Until 1954 cottagers were welcomed with open arms support and encouragement For some families it's the fifth generation who are now learning to appreciate Algonquin and its beauty Most of the time you'd hardly know they were there until you run into trouble while paddling on one of the lakes lose your way need medical attention or get caught in a storm or a heavy northwind Then they miraculously appear to provide help and guidance and occasionally save your life Mostly in residence on weekends from ice out to ice in and for a few weeks in the summer members of this small but vibrant community of 9000 extended family members have become as much a part of Algonquin as the loons and the ladyslippers Through much detective work Clemson has blended current and historical narratives with extensive research through files seldom searched to provide a glimpse into the lives of the leaseholders who have treasured their experiences in Algonquin Park throughout the past century

They Were Extraordinary Richard F. Manges, 2012-05-31 What if I had taken that job instead of going to college What if I had taken lessons instead of trying to teach myself What if I had followed my dreams instead of taking the easier path What if I had just said yes instead of letting fear define me In a cynical world its easy to get jaded and overlook the many small miracles that surround us every day Each of us has our own path to create and that journey can be what we make of it For most people even those who manage to lead successful happy and healthy lives life is not the proverbial bowl of cherries But for those who can navigate lifes highs and lows that rare state of satisfaction can be the reward Four people set out on their life journeys and their individual paths cross and interconnect when the timing is right From childhood through the many challenges to adulthood their lives trace different but equally amazing paths Keith is Annapolis bound but his ambitions may carry him into a different type of service Genevieve a talented vocalist is pursuing her dreams in the entertainment world David strives for a life in the world of baseball while Victoria has set her sights on serving her country as a politician Through persistence and unflinching determination each will be in many ways extraordinary
