

(The crash outside is followed, during the next minute or two, by windows opening and voices of people calling to each other as they look down into the alley below. But all these sounds die down rather quickly)

(As SUSY continues to speak her hands are still playing with the flowers. She begins to behave as though she has beaten MIKE already and sounds almost amused - as a sympathetic woman might speak to a younger man who is trying to make love to her for the first time.)

SUSY (continuing)

So go on then Mike - what are you going to do first? Twist my arm? ... Burn my hand on the stove? I've never done this before - so you have to make the first move.

(A short pause as MIKE's attention switches from what has just happened outside, to SUSY)

MIKE

(gently, as though giving in)

Perhaps you're right ... maybe I just couldn't hurt you enough. (A PAUSE) But suppose there was a man who could ...

(He watches her reaction. For the first time she begins to look frightened)

... And suppose he was waiting right outside here ... where he has been waiting all day ... just for this. (A PAUSE) All I have to do is to walk out of here and he'll come in ... is that what you want?

SUSY

You wouldn't do that.

MIKE

I don't have to. But I'm not waiting any longer.

SUSY (raising her voice)

Anything he does you'll be doing yourself. You'll never forget that.

MIKE

I won't be here. (A PAUSE) Have it your way then. (He goes up the stairs)

SUSY (shouting angrily)

Go on then get out! You're worse than he is!
