Nino The Carrot:

EL Niño Kyle Horrocks, 2009-12-09 El Nino another christmas carol A Novella This is a story of a lost soul coming home after years of searching for a place in the sun and failing only to find it where he left it home waiting unsoiled by the sins of the road taken Is it Christmas Eve in southern California A middle age man drives his beat up old car toward the ocean It is only when he stands in the surf facing the dominating presence of the sea can he feel a force greater than the one keeping him imprisoned within himself He has been here many times before Each time hoping he will be released from the fears that persecute him and each time the hope becomes dimmer as the door closes on the grace of the sea But this is a night when hope reawakens the sleeping beauty of the heart light endowed in human nature and the tormented man is about to be swept up in its path of unifying force There is an episode within the story that takes a fantastic leap but it works giving the tale a believable connection to the outcome of the man s journey I am an unpublished author This is my first submission The feedback from a variety of personalities and lifestyles some friends some not has been very positive Thank you for your time Kyle Horrocks Riders on the Niño Storms L.
