Compulsory Interventions in Psychiatry: an Overview on the Current Situation and Recommendations for Prevention and Adequate Use Christian Huber, Andres Ricardo Schneeberger, 2021-02-24

Black Women Centre Stage Paola Prieto López, 2023-12-13 This book examines the political alliances that are built across the diaspora in contemporary plays written by Black women playwrights in the UK Through the concept of creative diasporic solidarity it offers an innovative theoretical approach to examine the ways in which the playwrights respond creatively to the violence and marginalisation of Black communities especially Black women This study demonstrates that theatre can act as a productive space for the ethical encounter with the Other understood in terms of alterity as someone different from the self by examining the possibilities of these plays to activate the spectators responsibility and solidarity towards different types of violence experienced by Black women offering alternative modes of relationality The book engages with a range of contemporary works written by Black women playwrights in the UK including Mojisola Adebayo Theresa Ikoko Diana Nneka Atuona Gloria Williams Charlene James or Yusra Warsama bringing to the fore a gendered and intersectional approach to the analysis of the texts This book will be of great interest to students and scholars in contemporary theatre gender studies and diaspora studies

Sanctuary cities and urban struggles

Jonathan Darling,Harald Bauder,2019-07-04 Sanctuary Cities and Urban Struggles makes the first sustained intervention into exploring how cities are challenging the primacy of the nation state as the key guarantor of rights and entitlements It brings together cutting edge scholars of political geography urban geography citizenship studies socio legal studies and refugee studies to explore how urban social movements localised practices of belonging and rights claiming and diverse articulations of sanctuary are reshaping the governance of migration By offering a collection of empirical cases and conceptualisations that move beyond seeing like a state Sanctuary Cities and Urban Struggles proposes not a singular alternative but rather a set of interlocking sites and scales of political imagination and practice In an era when migrant rights are under attack and nationalism is on the rise the topic of how citizenship rights and mobility can be recast at the urban scale is more relevant than ever
