Dear [Name of visiting scholar],

On behalf of [Name of hosting department], I formally invite you to Iowa State University as a [visiting scholar or visiting student-researcher]. This invitation is effective for the period of [Start Date] to [End date].

[Name and title/rank] will be your faculty host during your time at Iowa State and will work with you as you engage in the following activities at ISU:

[Describe in detail the individual or collaborative activities; specify the academic field of research, etc.]

Terms and Conditions

The terms and conditions applicable to your visit are set forth in the Visiting Scholars Agreement form. By accepting, you agree to comply with the Visiting Scholars Policy and all other applicable laws and University policies. You also agree to (pay the administrative fee – NOTE this is not applicable to Fulbright Scholars), and you acknowledge you are/may be subject to additional requirements including, but not limited to, a background check, export control review, Conflicts of Interest and Commitment disclosure, and enrollment in ISHIP health insurance.

For international visiting scholars:

[To satisfy immigration and program requirements, you must demonstrate that you have the required minimum of $3,681 per month of intended stay. Additional fees and expenses related to your visa are your responsibility and include the SEVIS fee and visa application fee.

You will be issued a Certificate of Eligibility for Exchange Visitor (J-1) status (Form DS-2019), which will allow you to apply for a J-1 Visa and participate in the Exchange Visitor Program. If you intend to bring dependents, they will also be issued DS-2019 forms, so long as you have demonstrated you have the required health insurance for all family members and financial support for your spouse and/or children. The Office of International Students and Scholars will provide you with the DS-2019 form(s) and additional information regarding the Exchange Visitor Program regulations and your responsibilities. Please note that during your stay here you are responsible for adhering to all university, immigration, and exchange visitor program regulations and procedures.]

This book is an essential weapon for anyone looking for funding in the extremely competitive grant-seeking world. It explains how and why to approach both public and private sponsors with not just information but persuasion for the best chance for success. How do you present the right balance of logic, emotion and relationship awareness to make a persuasive proposal? What is THE most important thing to do before submitting a proposal to increase your odds for funding success? What portion of the proposal must be stressed even when it has a low point value assigned to it in the reviewer's evaluation form? How can a site visit make or break the fate of a meticulously prepared application? Models of Proposal Planning Writing Second Edition answers all these critical questions and more for grantseekers, documenting how to write a proposal that will persuade a sponsor to invest in your projects and organization and just as importantly explaining why a properly persuasive application puts forth a seamless argument that stands the test of reason, addresses psychological concerns and connects your project to the values of the sponsor. The book's comprehensive annotations provide practical information that walks readers step by step through a logical integrated process of planning and writing persuasive proposals Women Leading Education Across the Continents Rachel McNae, Elizabeth C.
