

Reflective Teaching Statement:

In the current climate of hiring in Humanities, the odds are never in your favour. The most recent position for which we hired at my university received 160 applications of which very few were automatically unsuitable, judging from their CV's alone. Given these raw numbers, a carefully crafted teaching statement can play a significant part in making a candidate appealing to an overwhelmed search committee. Every institution has its own values, and this talk is shaped by the perspective of a member of a small public liberal arts Classics department. That said, my suggestions aim to be valuable for applications to other types of institution as well. The advice offered here can be summed up in six words to shape or influence your teaching statement: time; truth; imagination; experience; reflection; and enthusiasm.

Time is needed to find out as much as possible about the department to which you are applying, and truth, to ask yourself honestly whether this is a place which could make you happy and which you could make happy. Imagination comes next: what particular contribution can you imagine making to the department, both in what it already does and in what it could do? Experience should underlie the imagination: specific examples of what you have already taught and your approach to it are essential, and, at least for small departments which typically yearn after energetic generalists, an appealing teaching statement contains both breadth and depth – breadth of expertise and depth of reflection on what your particular strengths as a teacher are, and also areas in which you have become, or are becoming a better teacher. Lastly – enthusiasm, which leads us back to time and truth. The candidates whose teaching statement seemed to engage genuinely with the types of teaching, - undergraduate research, for example - that my department values highly, through having taken the time to explore our website and get some

Sample Reflection Paper On Teaching: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. Sample Reflection Paper On Teaching : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has gripped readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Sample Reflection Paper On Teaching : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This spellbinding historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Sample Reflection Paper On Teaching : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papan, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and thrilling novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
