Vambe, 2013-08-27 This book of reminiscences charts the life of a young man Kamtugudu short Kamtu growing up in an African township during the Rhodesian era It chronicles a journey that spans his formative years from primary school through to his secondary school years It gives some insight into the Rhodesian primary and secondary school education systems then and the challenges faced by the youngster as he tried to make sense of a school disciplinary system that often bordered on physical abuse The chronicles of Kamtus childhood adventures and conflicts make one wonder how he came through it all without any emotional scars In his early teens bemused by the contradiction between ancestral worship and Christianity he asks poignant questions regarding the oxymoron that was the coexistence of the two beliefs within his family and as a result conflict with his mother siblings and cousins was an inevitable eventuality A brief escape to the shores of England provided a temporary reprieve from the stress and anxiety triggered by his appointment to the role of a spirit medium but on his return to Zimbabwe the traditional cloth which had been assigned to him as the emblem of his supposedly elevated status was awaiting him In his quest for answers and a means of escape he stumbles into a tent church meeting and witnesses a logic defying event that changes his life forever
