Justice, Crime, and Citizenship in Eurasia Erica Marat, Lauren A. McCarthy, 2022-08-18 What role does law play in post communist societies This book examines the law as a social institution in Eurasia exploring how it is shaped in everyday interactions between state and society organisations and individuals and between law enforcement and other government entities It bridges the gap between theoretically rich work on law in action and the empirical reality of Eurasia The contributions in this volume include research on policing the legal profession public attitudes towards law regime support and oppositional mobilisation crime policy and property rights among others The studies shift away from the common perception that in Eurasia the law exists only as a tool for the state to enforce order and suppress dissent Instead they show through empirical analyses that citizens evade use reinterpret and shape the law even in authoritarian contexts sometimes containing state violence and challenging the regime and other times reinforcing state capture from below The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Europe Asia Studies

Labour and Social Transformation in Central and Eastern Europe Violaine Delteil, Vassil Nikolaev Kirov, 2016-07-22 Over a quarter of a century after the fall of the Berlin Wall and 10 years after their accession to the European Union EU Central and Eastern Europe Countries CEECs still show marked differences with the rest of Europe in the fields of labour work and industrial relations This book presents a detailed and original analysis of labour and social transformations in the CEECs By examining a wide range of countries in Central Europe Labour and Social Transformation in Central and Eastern Europe offers a comprehensive and contrasting view of labour developments in Central and Eastern Europe Chapters explore three related issues The first deals with the understanding of the complex process of Europeanization applied in the sphere of labour employment and industrial relations The second issue refers to the attempt to link the Europeanization approach with an analysis mobilizing the theoretical concept of dependent capitalism s The third issue refers to the cumulative trends of labour weakening and labour awakening that has emerged in particular in the aftermath of the crisis beginning in 2007 2008 This book will be of interest to academics policy makers and stakeholders at European and national level in the EU member states
