

Personal Reflection Paper

This statement should be ten pages in length with 1 inch margins, Times New Roman 12 point font, and 1 ½ line spacing. Please note that applications are evaluated on the completeness with which these questions are addressed and the degree of insight demonstrated. Special attention is paid to expression of clear long-term professional outcomes, strengths and weaknesses, self-awareness, openness to self-exploration, previous research experiences, and clarity of writing. Applicants to the Personal Financial Planning Ph.D. program should be prepared to balance interests in research, practice, and policy application.

1. Identify three issues in the personal financial planning field that warrant research, and discuss how achieving a Ph.D. will help you facilitate answers to these issues.
2. What do you consider to be strengths that will help you become an outstanding researcher and educator? When answering this question elaborate any training, skills, or experiences that will help you achieve success in the doctoral program.
3. What do you consider to be the area that will need most attention during your training? If you have something unusual in your background that might be considered a deficit, please discuss it.
4. What critical events from the past have most influenced your present personal and professional development?
5. How has your personal life impacted your professional life? If you experienced set-backs or obstacles how did you overcome them?
6. Why do you want to obtain a Ph.D. in Personal Financial Planning from Kansas State University?
7. What personal qualities can you contribute to the Ph.D. program at K-State?

They Aren't Just Students David S. Bunn,2020-04-23 This book is geared towards the academic as well as the trade audience There are very few books for college teachers that encourage them with specific ways to become better teachers As such this book is very unusual in its information and purpose making it a very valuable tool for anyone who wants to teach This book stands well on its own but would also make a great supplement for any college text book For a trade audience this book has applications to high school and elementary school teachers who can easily make the leap between teaching college and their current level students It will also be of interest to parents as they evaluate the quality of those who teach their children Written in the style of Irvin D Yalom and his book The Gift of Therapy this work is based on general research themes and experience rather than specific studies It is written in a direct and personal style to the reader with many examples from the twenty one years of teaching experience by the author Leininger's Culture Care Diversity and Universality Marilyn R. McFarland,Hiba B. Wehbe-Alamah,2015 Preceded by Culture care diversity and universality a worldwide nursing theory edited by Madeleine M Leininger Marilyn R McFarland 2nd ed c2006 Preparing Teachers for a Changing World Linda Darling-Hammond,John Bransford,2017-07-27 Based on rapid advances in what is known about how people learn and how to teach effectively this important book examines the core concepts and central pedagogies that should be at the heart of any teacher education program Stemming from the results of a commission sponsored by the National Academy of Education Preparing Teachers for a Changing World recommends the creation of an informed teacher education curriculum with the common elements that represent state of the art standards for the profession Written for teacher educators in both traditional and alternative programs university and school system leaders teachers staff development professionals researchers and educational policymakers the book addresses the key foundational knowledge for teaching and discusses how to implement that knowledge within the classroom Preparing Teachers for a Changing World recommends that in addition to strong subject matter knowledge all new teachers have a basic understanding of how people learn and develop as well as how children acquire and use language which is the currency of education In addition the book suggests that teaching professionals must be able to apply that knowledge in developing curriculum that attends to students needs the demands of the content and the social purposes of education in teaching specific subject matter to diverse students in managing the classroom assessing student performance and using technology in the classroom Advances in Global Leadership Joyce S. Osland,B. Sebastian Reiche,Betina Szkudlarek,Mark E.
