Painting Is Like a Pizza Nancy G. Heller, 2019-12-31 The first time she made a pizza from scratch art historian Nancy Heller made the observation that led her to write this entertaining guide to contemporary art Comparing modern art not only to pizzas but also to traditional and children s art Heller shows us how we can refine analytical tools we already possess to understand and enjoy even the most unfamiliar paintings and sculptures How is a painting like a pizza Both depend on visual balance for much of their overall appeal and though both can be judged by a set of established standards pizzas and paintings must ultimately be evaluated in terms of individual taste By using such commonsense examples and making unexpected connections this book helps even the most skeptical viewers feel comfortable around contemporary art and see aspects of it they would otherwise miss Heller discusses how nontraditional works of art are made and thus how to talk about their composition and formal elements She also considers why such art is made and what it means At the same time Heller reassures those of us who have felt uncomfortable around avant garde art that we don't have to like all or even any of it Yet if we can relax we can use the aesthetic awareness developed in everyday life to analyze almost any painting sculpture or installation Heller also gives concise answers to the eight questions she is most frequently asked about contemporary art from how to tell when an abstract painting is right side up to which works of art belong in a museum This book is for anyone who agrees with art critic Clement Greenberg that All profoundly original art looks ugly at first It's also for anyone who disagrees It is for anyone who wants to get more out of a museum or gallery visit and would like to be able to say something more than just yes or no when asked if they like an artist's work A Year Full of Themes Beverly Amaral Tavares,1999-02

The Colors of Learning Rosemary Althouse, Margaret H. Johnson, Sharon T. Mitchell, 2003 Unique in its creativity and depth of understanding The Colors of Learning will change the way that teachers think about and react to children's artwork Promoting the integration of visual art into all early childhood curriculum areas this volume will help early childhood professionals present in depth art experiences to children so that they become engrossed in expressing their ideas and newly learned concepts through art media This user friendly volume features actual classroom dialogue throughout the text and many illustrations of children's art including some in full color Based on standards endorsed by the National Association for the Education of Young Children NAEYC and the National Art Education Association NAEA this important book focuses on Lev Vygotsky's theory of social interactions in learning showing how teacher-child and child-child relations become an important part of the art experience Helping teachers to use more effective language to build children's conceptual knowledge and guide them in their art making The use of many kinds of art media providing examples of developmentally appropriate activities to improve children's thinking and learning Moving away from art that is solely created to be cute and pleasing to adults to art experiences that develop the child's individual expression The authors have given the field of early education a valuable usable gift one that will have a great impact on young children's lives and those who teach them From the Foreword by Carol Seefeldt The Colors of Learning provides a new awareness of why and how to integrate art into all subject areas in early childhood curriculum should help all teachers of young children to enhance and enjoy their teaching and the children's learning Meg Barden Cline Lecturer retired University of Massachusetts at Amherst The Mailbox, 2007 AmiguruMe Eats-Make Cute Scented Crochet Foods-2019 Magazines Global, AmiguruMe Eats Make Cute Scented Crochet Foods 2019 Fed Up with Frenzy Susan Sachs Lipman, 2012-08-01 Slow Down Reconnect It's Easier than You
