Red Hot Mums Tv Guide:

TV Guide Stephen F. Hofer, 2006 This book looks at the origins and growth of television through the pages of TV Guide and covers the complete run of this American icon from the first guides in 1953 to the last issue in guide format on October 9 2005 It includes full color reproductions of every cover ever printed and is both a collector's guide with pricing included and a retrospective view of the medium TV Guide, 2006 Second to None ArLynn Leiber Presser, 2014-04-01

SECOND TO NONE originally published under the byline ArLynn Presser Garnet Brown is seventeen years old has a great mother a boyfriend Andy and a cute tutor Grant who is undeniably geeky but somehow still charming and attractive Her life plan revolves around getting into a good college and getting out of the poor neighborhood she's lived in her whole life The one where she's mostly known as the child of an illicit affair that cost her mother her job and reputation and that left Garnet seeing her father only every few years in court where her parents would argue about money So when her well to do father comes to call asking her to come visit and meet the family the wife the older half brother and the younger half brother they had after he went back to his wife there has to be a mighty big string attached Like a son with cancer and a last chance hope that Garnet can be a bone marrow donor Life hasn't ever been easy but it's suddenly gotten way harder and a surprising kiss from Grant turns everything on its head even more than suddenly having a father in her life The choices are surprising confusing and surprisingly romantic

From Small Screen to Vinyl Bob Leszczak, 2015-06-25 From its infancy television networks and studios explore others avenues to increase their revenues Conveniently enough several film studios and production companies MGM MTM Columbia Screen Gems Talent Associates Warner Brothers had their own record label divisions The obvious benefit was cross promotion a television series could be plugged on the record and the record could be promoted on the TV show Though few and far between several television performers went on to become major recording stars Ricky Nelson started as a child actor

on The Adventures of Ozzie and Harriet before dominating rock and pop charts Johnny Crawford of The Rifleman Walter Brennan of The Real McCoys and even Bruce Willis of Moonlighting all scored Top Ten hit singles But these were just the standouts from the hundreds of TV actors who recorded songs and the stories behind their records are simply fascinating In From Small Screen to Vinyl A Guide to TV Stars Who Made Records 1950 2000 author Bob Leszczak offers a look at hundreds of stars who performed double duty as a television performer as well as a recording artist He looks not only at the show and the performer but the behind the scenes dramas that unfolded as each attempted to tackle the two different mediums Through his interviews with many of these multitaskers the author has uncovered new and mostly never before known facts about those who sought to conquer the world of vinyl As Leszczak stresses most eagerly embraced the opportunity to record while others saw it as a necessary evil the result of contractual obligations or industry pressures Entries are listed alphabetically from Nick Adams of The Rebel to Efrem Zimbalist Jr of 77 Sunset Strip Also included are over 80 photos of these rare releases taken from the author's private collection For a new look at your old favorites From Small Screen to Vinyl will let you see that just because one is a TV star does not mean that he or she does not have the ability to expand beyond their acting prowess Baby boomers fans of classic hits radio and devotees of classic TV programs will find From Small Screen to Vinyl a treasure trove of TV and record trivia and no TV or music library can be considered complete without it

Tales From A Broad Fran Lebowitz, 2011-09-01 When a frazzled New Yorker who is mad bad and dangerous to know lands in Asia life is never quite the same again for anyone Fran Lebowitz cheerfully admits that she is intergalactically self absorbed a little crazy and really really hard to please just ask her eternally patient and bemused husband Frank But when her life in the fast land falls apart again it's time for a miracle Reeling from the worst week of her life topped off by her most important client stabbing her in the back Fran realises that she's almost forgotten what her family looks like She wants out of the rat race and her hectic life as a literary agent and time to be herself a real wife and mother to her two small children Good old Frank delivers what seems the answer to her prayers to escape for three months to Singapore while he does some business But what starts out as a little break and a very big culture shock for all concerned marks the hilarious beginning of the end of the old Fran and a whole new life
