Practice of the Music in the Seventh-Day Adventist Church in Papua New Guinea Jennifer J. Jones, 2004 Literacy and Religion Cushla Kapitzke, 1995-08-04 This book explores the interrelation of literacy and religion as practiced by Western Christians in first historical contexts and second in one contemporary church setting Using both a case study and a Foucauldian theoretical framework the book provides a sustained analysis of the reciprocal discursive construction of literacy religiosity and identity in one Seventh day Adventist Church community of Northern Australia Critical linguistic and discourse analytic theory is used to disclose processes of theological church familial home and educational school normalisation of community members into regulated ways of hearing and speaking reading and writing being and believing Detailed analyses of spoken and written texts taken from institutional and local community settings show how textual religion is an exemplary technology of the self a politics constituted by canonical texts interpretive norms textual practices ritualised events and sociopolitical protocols that ultimately are turned in upon the self The purpose of these analyses is to show how across denominational difference in belief tradition and practice particular versions of self and society are constructed through economies of truth from text that constrain what can and cannot be articulated and enacted by believers We Are the Pathfinders Strong Willie Oliver, Patricia Humphrey, 2000 We Are the Pathfinders Strong is the story of the men and women who dedicated themselves to the church's young people and the young people who joined them in this exciting program Around the world Adventist young people learn new skills and participate in fascinating activities whether it be camping in the snow exploring caves witnessing to others or serving as volunteers in humanitarian or civic outreaches
